Thesis and Major Research Paper Copyright Licence

Updated February 2013

Note to student: To preserve and disseminate student theses and major research papers, Brock University makes them available through its digital repository, Library and Archives Canada and in other third party thesis databases. Under this form, you give Brock the right to preserve and grant access to your thesis or major research paper for these purposes. You guarantee that the work is your own and does not infringe any third party rights. In accordance with University policies, you retain the copyright. If you have any questions about this form, please contact copyright@brocku.ca

1. Grant of Licence

I grant Brock University a non-exclusive, royalty-free, perpetual, worldwide licence to do the following in respect of the work described below ("My Work") in whole or in part, in any and all media now or later known:

a. Reproduce My Work in and make My Work available to the public through Brock's online digital repository;
b. Provide copies of My Work to other libraries in response to an inter-library loan request;
c. In the case of Theses, to provide My Work to Library and Archives Canada ("LAC") for preservation and dissemination in accordance with LAC's Theses Non-Exclusive Licence; and
d. Provide My Work to third party theses databases which may make My Work available to the public for free or a fee.

2. Warranties

I represent and warrant that, to the best of my knowledge, I have all the rights necessary to grant the rights in this licence, including any necessary permissions or releases from third parties, and that the communication of My Work will not breach any law or the right of any other person or entity.

3. Ownership

I retain ownership of copyright in My Work, including the right to modify My Work, publish My Work and to license rights to My Work to third parties.
