Goodman
School of Business

Brock University

Niagara Region
500 Glenridge Ave.
St. Catharines, ON
L2S 3A1 Canada

Goodman.brocku.ca

Centre for Innovation, Management and Enterprise Education presents:

Building Successful Mentoring Relationships

Mentoring is a very valuable and important component of career development and personal growth. A successful mentoring relationship produces many positive attributes that contribute to career success. Mentoring is a very valuable and important component of career development and personal growth.

This seminar explains what mentoring is, how it works, and what the role as mentor entails. Instructor Rhonda Chopin draws from her experiences with functioning corporate mentorship programs to show how good mentoring programs work, how to develop mutually beneficial expectations and relationships and how to structure critical mentoring discussions.

Two Tuesday evenings, Jan. 14 & 21, 2014, 6:30 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.
Chamber Education Centre, 1 St. Paul St., St. Catharines
$249 plus HST

Instructor: Rhonda Chopin

Rhonda Chopin is a Learning and Development and Human Resources professional specializing in Training and Development, Organizational Design and Development, Resourcing, Performance, and Industrial and Employee Relations. Rhonda holds a Honours Degree in Psychology and a Masters Degree in Adult Education both from Brock University, as well as several professional certifications in training and facilitating. Rhonda is a graduate of Brock's Professional Management Certificate Program, The Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto Advanced Program in Human Resources Management, and Leadership Niagara. She works as a Senior Advisor within Human Resources at Ontario Power Generation in Niagara-on-the-Lake and is a continuing education instructor at Niagara College and Brock University, and a facilitator and advisor for Leadership Niagara.

To register for any seminar, please call the Greater Niagara Chamber of Commerce Office:
905 684-2361 OR e-mail admin@gncc.ca.