Congrats, and welcome to Brock and to Residence! I look forward to joining all of you in the 'Berg' this upcoming year!

I'm am Head Resident for Lowenberger for 2015-2016!

I just finished up my Master of Arts in English, and I will be returning to Brock to take a few extra courses next year. I absolutely love the culture, community and atmosphere that develop in Brock's residences, and I'm so excited for the chance to be your Head Resident!

The rest of the Berg staff and I look forward to the amazing year that I know we're all going to have, and we can't wait to meet you all! I hope that you all make next year the best that it can be for you, and that each of you has a unique and wonderful residence experience.

Lowenberger Cup

What is the Lowenberger Cup? The Lowenberger Crew (a bunch of students) run events throughout the year and at each event, the halls in Lowenberger win points. These points are tallied up at the end of the year and the house with the most points wins the Lowenberger Cup. The 2014-15 Cup went to Ravens Hall. You can get involved this year by joining Lowenberger Crew or simply by attending events with your Hall... the question is, who will be the big winner this year?

2014-2015 (this could be you!)

So, you may be wondering what it is like to live in residence? Well, it's not the same as living off campus in a house.....when you live in residence there are so many more opportunities to meet people and get involved in different things on campus.

In residence we have a few different groups that you can join:

- Lowenberger Crew
- The Residence Action Council (RAC)
- Actively Acting out

Plus you can get involved in our Residence Service Learning projects, alternative spring break trips, attend residence events, get involved in your house as a fire warden, help your Don out with various tasks or even join an intramural team.

The thing to remember is that you will have time to get involved.

Some students are afraid to get involved in their first year because they aren't sure how much school work they'll have....you'll have lots but you will also have to have some fun and being involved in any of these groups is not a huge commitment and it will help you in the future if you want to become a Don, or just to add things to your resume.

More information about these groups and how to get involved are on the residence website: www.brocku.ca/residence.
