

Tribute! A Brock Days Tradition

Join us for this entertaining roast and toast event as we celebrate the accomplishments of Les McCurdy-Myers.

Tribute! A Brock Days Tradition

Join us to celebrate Les McCurdy-Myers and the outstanding contributions he's made to student life and development at Brock.

After earning an Honors BA in psychology from Brock, McCurdy-Myers eventually entered a doctoral program at the University of Toronto, where he also taught master's and doctoral candidates. As manager of Personal Counselling Service and Leadership Development at Brock, Les provides crisis management services and was instrumental in creating and delivering the Foundations of Leadership workshops to students, faculty and staff. His integral role in the training of hundreds of residence dons and head residents continues in this, his 36th year of involvement.

He is a Past President of the Canadian University and College Counselling Association and has served on the board of the Canadian Association of College and University Student Services (CACUSS), receiving the 2009 CACUSS Award of Honour. He received the Brock University Distinguished Service Award in 2005 and is a director on the Brock University Alumni Association.

Please join us for this very special Tribute! event for a fun and light-hearted roast and toast of Les McCurdy-Myers.
