

Come to watch Canada's Prince of the Air, continues the "summer of Skywalks" in the Niagara. Highwire stretches 1,300 feet (397m) from the top of the Niagara Fallsview Hilton Hotel North Tower at a height of 581 feet (177m) to the top of the Skylon Tower at a height of 520 feet (160m). Skywalk 2012 will cross a 400 m (quarter mile) distance over 50-stories in the sky as Jay Cochrane performs the greatest building-to-building skywalk in North American history for twelve weeks in Niagara Falls, Canada. We will have the chance to see the fireworks by the falls at 10:00 pm.
