

The Tecumseh Centre for Aboriginal Research and Education, and the Niagara Regional Native Centre are proud to co-host a public forum on:

Urban Aboriginal Employment and Education:

Opportunities & Challenges in the Niagara Region

Public Forum

September 30th, 2015

6-9 pm

Pond Inlet,

Brock University

Keynote Speaker

Sylvia Maracle-Skonaganleh:ray
Ontario Federation of Indigenous Friendship Centres

Sylvia is Mohawk Wolf clan from the Tyendinaga Mohawk Territory. A passionate advocate for urban Aboriginal peoples and women's issues, her work with the National Association of Friendship Centres, the Native Women's Association of Canada, the Assembly of First Nations, National Aboriginal Head Start and a long list of regional and local organizations are internationally renowned.

Introduced by Jaynane Burning-Fields, NRNC

Proud Partners

Forum Panel

Moderated by Barry Wright
Goodman School of Business, Brock University

Kate Cassidy

Goodman School of Business

Shari St Peter

Niagara Peninsula Aboriginal Area Management

Erin Monture

Great River Employment & Training Inc.

Business Leader

TBA

Free forum registration contact: tbrant2@brocku.ca