

Daniel Roberts, Ph.D.
Integrated Winegrowing, LLC.
8207 Candy Apple Lane
Sebastopol CA. 95472

Professional Employment

Viticultural Consultant, 1997 to present

Land evaluation, vineyard design, vineyard technique input as to pruning, canopy management, irrigation, fertilization and harvest for vineyards throughout California.

Twenty five clients mostly California (Napa, Sonoma, Santa Cruz and Santa Barbara Counties) also 1 in Oregon and 1 in Virginia.

Director of Winegrowing, Kendall-Jackson 12-96 to 2-04

Concurrent position while developing consulting clients. Worked in vineyards throughout California, Chile, Argentina, Australia and Italy as to land evaluation, vineyard design, vineyard development and technique management of established vineyards as to pruning, canopy management, irrigation fertilization and harvest for vineyards.

Viticulturist and Grower Relations Manager, Sterling Vineyards 2-86 to 12-96

Watched over 125 growers as to contracts and viticultural practices as well as overseeing viticulture for 1000 acres of vineyards in Napa County.

Vineyard Manager, Field Stone Winery 2-84 to 2-86

Management responsibilities for ~ 150 acres of vineyard and a 500 acre ranch in Alexander Valley. Directed crews in all aspects of vineyard management from pruning, canopy management, irrigation fertilization and harvest for vineyards.

Viticulturist, Renaissance Vineyards 2-81 to 2-84

Responsible for all aspects of technique viticultural on a ~250 acre vineyard in the Sierra Foothills.

Education

University of New Hampshire, Ph.D. 1976 to 1960
Agronomy specializing in soil science and plant nutrition.

Connecticut College, M.A.
Botany and Plant Ecology

Societies, Organizations

Professional member ASEV, SSSA

Technical advisor to AVF 1990 to 2003
AVF Board Member 2001 to 2003

Plant and Soil Analysis Council, Board Member since 2004