History of Brock University

Opened in 1964, Brock University is named for Major-General Sir Isaac Brock, who died in battle at nearby Queenston Heights in the War of 1812. Brock's final words were said to have been "Push on, my brave fellows!" A Latin translation of this is "Surgite!" — which is Brock University's motto.

The seeds of the University were sown long before the doors first opened. Brock's story is about a community that rose up and built the institution it wanted for its future.

In the late 1950s, there was growing public discussion about how Niagara should have its own university. The grassroots sentiment became a movement in 1957 when the Allanburg Women's Institute asked the Ontario government to consider opening a university in the region.

By fall 1962, the Brock Founders Committee was incorporated. They received approval to create a new university, then developed an administrative and academic plan. Then they began raising money.

After years of meetings and fundraising, Brock opened in September 1964. It had 127 students in a refurbished refrigeration factory at the foot of the Niagara Escarpment in St. Catharines. In 1966, the landmark Brock Tower was completed, and Faculties began moving "up the hill" to the University's permanent home atop the Niagara Escarpment.

For the next 30 years, Brock sent thousands of graduates on to successful careers. It built a name for its personal quality of teaching afforded by attentive faculty and controlled class sizes. As the new millennium dawned, enrolment soared. Brock transformed from an undergraduate institute to a comprehensive University with flourishing research, graduate and doctoral programs.

The campus steadily expanded to keep pace with the demand for a Brock education with the construction of world-class research labs, a landmark fine arts complex, an international students' centre and a new research and innovation hub.

Brock serves its community as a cultural, academic and recreational centre, bringing excellent facilities to the people who created the University all those years ago. We are committed to building our community and fostering an environment that serves our students and our neighbours.

The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial role, are medieval in origin.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or Convocation, is the modern equivalent of the full congregation of all Faculties, is followed by the Chancellor and the Mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods and caps declare in their various designs and colours the academic qualifications of the faculty. The citations and presentations by the faculty to the Chancellor attest to the Chancellor and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University.

The Chancellor confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. The statement "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within those of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students to the University. They receive what the University has been and what it is today. The graduates are what the University hopes to be.

The University flag

Our flag is the Banner of Arms of the Grant of Arms to Brock University, granted on March 17, 1965. The main feature on the flag is a gold-winged eagle with the book of learning on its breast. Yellow and red are colours associated with academic institutions and the eagle was once thought to be the bird that flew the highest and was the wisest.

The top the flag includes the maple leaf, representing Canada; a trillium representing Ontario and a shell (escallop)-a symbol long associated with the Lincoln-Welland Regiment and the County of Welland. The flag, donated by the members of Brock's 1994 Quarter Century Club, stands on the stage for each Convocation ceremony and is flown daily on campus.

The University mace

Maces were originally specialized war clubs, made of metal or garnished with metal spikes used by knights or other warriors.

This functional weapon evolved into a symbolic emblem of legislative and civic authority used by cities and towns and, ultimately, by parliament. Many universities have decorated maces as symbols of their corporate identity and authority.

Brock was presented with its mace in 1992 as a gift from the people of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the birthplace of Major-General Sir Isaac Brock.

It is made of sterling silver and incorporates the Guernsey seal; the University crest; a crown from the Constable's baton; flames of learning from the University's coat of arms, a maple leaf, scallop shell and Trillium flower, which are symbols of the University; and a button from the uniform of Brock's 49th regiment.

Eagle Staff

The Eagle Staff is sacred and clears the way for everything that comes after it.

An Eagle staff is used by Indigenous nations to represent their people and honour the veterans or warriors of the past and present.

This Eagle Staff was created for the Hadiya'dagénhahs First Nations, Métis and Inuit Student Centre at Brock University by Nipissing First Nation Elder Abiidaasmosede and includes four beaded medallions by Cayuga and Tuscarora beadwork artist Mary Annette Printup-Clause.

During the ceremony, the staff faces east to represent new beginnings.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Beta Gamma Sigma is the honour society serving business programs accredited by AACSB International — the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest recognition a business student anywhere in the world can receive in a business program accredited by AACSB International. Brock received accreditation to AACSB in 2003, joining top international business schools, and in 2004 was admitted into Beta Gamma Sigma.

Membership in this honours society is offered only to the best business and accounting students: undergraduates completing third year in the top 10 per cent of their class and graduates ranking in the top 10 per cent of their undergraduate programs or top 20 per cent of their master's program.

Ambearrister

An 'Ambearrister' was gifted to Brock University in 2020 by Dr. Cindy Blackstock, Director of First Nations Child and Family Caring Society (FNCFC). This bear, an extension of the 'Reconciliation Ambearrister' program, is an initiative and resource created by the Caring Society to address inequalities of Indigenous children, youth and families. Today, this program extends itself to uplift reconciliation efforts from all peoples, recognizing that if reconciliation is to take place it must reside within each and everyone. The program also acknowledges that reconciliation and "addressing discrimination takes love, honesty, compassion and a real commitment to helping others do the right thing" (FNCFC). Under the guidance of an Elder, Brock's 'Ambearrister' received their name: Entiohathé'te (It will be a bright road/path). Entiohathé'te is meant to help us move forward and do work that supports these words. More importantly, they encourage thought on how we can act on these words and make ideas and concepts surrounding reconciliation a reality at Brock University. Entiohathé'te will also be a gentle reminder for the University to commit to the Calls for Action offered by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

Entiohathé'te's has found a home in The Phyllis Webstad Library located in Hadiya'dagénhahs First Nations, Métis and Inuit Student Centre.

Campus Wide Co-Curriculum

The Campus-Wide Co-Curriculum is a program designed to enhance the Brock student experience through the completion of activities and opportunities within 10 different co-curricular domains.

By completing the Campus-Wide Co-Curriculum, a student has made a meaningful investment in their holistic development and has demonstrated a significant commitment to continuous learning and personal growth.

This distinction is acknowledged by a red cord worn by the graduand.

Academic regalia

Academic regalia at Convocation is steeped in tradition. All participants wear gowns, which are reminiscent of the robes worn by monks or clergy in medieval times. Hoods, worn draped over the shoulders and back, are derivatives of the simple coverings worn by people of all classes to keep their heads warm in an inhospitable climate.

The Chancellor's gown is made from 100% natural tropical wool and trimmed with gold lace. It is worn with a round velvet cap with a gold tassel. The Vice-Chancellor's gown is similar, but trimmed with silver. The University coat-of-arms is embroidered on the front facing of each gown. Honorary doctors wear gowns made of blue material with gold facings down the front and on each sleeve.

Faculty members wear the academic regalia appropriate to their degrees. Most doctoral gowns are more than one colour and many have three horizontal bars of velvet on each sleeve. Hoods signify the degrees and institutions from which they were received. Since Brock has faculty who graduated from scores of different universities, the Convocation procession is dramatic and colourful.

Honour cords

Honour cords are worn by graduands meeting the following criteria:

Graduands who have completed a 20-credit honours program with first-class honours standing, which requires a minimum 80 per cent average in all major credits and a minimum of 70 per cent in the remaining credits. As well, a transfer student must have completed a minimum of five credits at Brock University, including all departmental honours requirements for Year 4 and have maintained a minimum 75 per cent overall average and a minimum 80 per cent major average (based on Brock courses only).

Graduands who have completed the approved 15-credit pass degree or 20-credit non-honours degree with a minimum 80 per cent overall average. Transfer students require a minimum 80 per cent cumulative average in all Brock courses and a minimum 80 per cent overall average.

Message of congratulations

Hilary Pearson

Chancellor

You did it!

Earning a university degree is no small feat, and I know the journey wasn't always easy. You should be deeply proud of what you've accomplished.

Since 1964, more than 125,000 Brock graduates have gone on to become leaders, innovators, and changemakers, in Canada and around the world.

Courage is what brought you here. It takes courage to begin something new, to persevere through challenges, and to see the world from new perspectives.

During your time at Brock, you were encouraged to explore boldly, to speak with purpose, and to approach every challenge with integrity.

As you step into your next chapter, wherever it may lead, carry these values with you. Congratulations on your success and best wishes for all that's ahead.

Lesley Rigg

President and Vice-Chancellor

Congratulations to each and every one of you on this remarkable achievement. Your hard work and perseverance have brought you to this moment, and you have every reason to be proud.

A university education is a powerful foundation.

It opens minds. It expands horizons. It prepares you to make a meaningful impact in the world.

As you take your next steps, remember that you will always be part of the Brock community, a network that is supportive and proud to call you one of its own.

From all of us at Brock, to the Class of 2025 — congratulations and best wishes for the exciting journey ahead.

Anne McCourt

Chair, Board of Trustees

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, it is my great pleasure to congratulate you on your graduation from Brock University. The past few years have been filled with hard work, unforgettable experiences, and lasting memories. During this time, you have grown, learned and prepared yourself for the challenges and opportunities ahead. Brock has provided you with the knowledge, skills, and experiences to succeed in your future endeavours, and the degree you now hold is a key that opens the door to a lifetime of opportunities. As you take this next step, know that you join a vibrant community of more than 125,000 Brock alumni who are making a difference around the world.

May the friendships, lessons, and memories you carry from Brock University guide and inspire you as you contribute to the communities you are part of. We encourage you to stay connected, share your journey, and return to visit whenever you can.

Live fully, lead boldly, and help shape a better world. Surgite!

Chris Yendt

President, Brock University
Alumni Association

In 1967, the first 39 students at Brock University became the first alumni at their Convocation. Today, you join more than 125,000 proud alumni who are willing to connect with you, mentor you and build a supportive community that advocates for our collective successes as a member of the Brock University Alumni Association (BUAA). Brock is a place where passion meets opportunity—a place where you can make your own path and your own meaning. You were tenacious and accomplished so much as students. You earned this moment today. Grabbing hold of these opportunities is what gives Brock students their Badger Spirit. As you enjoy your first day as a member of the BUAA, remember to continue cultivating your Badger Spirit. The BUAA is here to be your home when you want to come back and visit, create opportunities for you to stay engaged and be your biggest cheerleader as you enter the next phases of life. We are so proud of all you've done so far, and we can't wait to see what you do next. Congratulations, and welcome to the alumni family. Surgite!

Mario Berro

President, Graduate
Students' Association

On behalf of the Graduate Students' Association, it is my honor to extend our heartfelt congratulations on this extraordinary achievement. Today you stand at the culmination of countless hours of study, collaboration, and perseverance. Proof that dedication transforms ambition into reality. As you step into the next chapter of your journey, remember the words of Steve Jobs: "The people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world are the ones who do."

Be delusional. Believe so strongly in your vision that obstacles become stepping stones. Let your confidence and creativity guide you to innovations and leadership in your chosen fields. Though you may move on from campus, the GSA remains your steadfast partner. Whether you seek professional guidance, wish to reconnect with your peers, or simply want to share your successes, we are here to support you. Your achievements enrich our community, and we look forward to celebrating all that you will accomplish. Congratulations, Class of 2025. The world awaits your brilliance. Go forth and make your mark.

Fiona Seabrook

President, Brock University
Students' Union

Congratulations Graduating Class of 2025! As your Student Union President and fellow graduate, I am incredibly honoured to be celebrating this milestone with you. This moment is the result of countless hours of hard work and determination – and every one of you should be proud of what you've accomplished. You have earned a degree that is more than just a piece of paper; it is a symbol of your dedication, perseverance, and growth throughout your university career.

As we step into this next chapter, know that you carry more than just a credential – you carry the friendships, memories, and lessons that have shaped your experience here at Brock. Let them guide you, ground you, and remind you of how far you've come. Let's Go Badgers!

Award in excellence and Convocation speakers

Pauli Gardner (they/them)

Associate Professor,
Department of Health Sciences

Distinguished Teaching Award recipient Convocation Speaker - Morning Ceremony

Dr. Pauli Gardner is an Associate Professor in the Department of Health Sciences and recipient of this year's Distinguished Teaching Award - a recognition they describe as "a shared celebration of the teaching culture they're grateful to be a part of". Pauli's research lives at the crossroads of health, aging, and place. Whether examining neighbourhoods, care homes or university campuses, they treat communities as living laboratories for understanding how people grow older, stay well, and belong. Pauli has been playfully dubbed a "walker stalker" as they follow older adults through their daily lives to learn how they navigate barriers to meaningful activity. As a social gerontologist and qualitative health researcher, Pauli's work explores aging from a critical perspective to challenge assumptions about aging and disability, re-imagine practices and policies in community and care settings, and develop new ways of knowing that prioritize the lived experience of older adults.

Pauli also leads a program of research that explores how mindfulness and contemplative practices can support student mental health and create environments that support learning. In their classroom you'll observe a variety of innovative teaching strategies that invite students to be present in their learning and to connect deeply with the material, themselves and each other.

Allison Glazebrook

Associate Professor,
Department of Classics
and Archaeology

Convocation Speaker - Afternoon Ceremony

Allison Glazebrook is a Professor in the Department of Classics and Archaeology in the Faculty of Humanities with degrees from the University of Alberta, Queen's University, and the University at Buffalo, SUNY. A student-centered, innovative teacher, and supportive supervisor, her research focuses on the social and cultural history of ancient Greece, particularly women, gender, sexuality, and slavery, and is funded by the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada. She is recipient of the Faculty of Humanities Award for Excellence in Teaching (2018) and for Research and Creative Activity (2023). She recently received the Award of Merit from the Classical Association of Canada and was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Canada for outstanding contributions to her discipline. Her publications include numerous articles, book chapters, and books, and the co-edited textbook Themes in Greek Society and Culture: An Introduction to Ancient Greece (2nd ed. Oxford, 2021). From 2018-2020 she was President of the Classical Association of Canada. She supports her local community through United Way Niagara as well as various scholarships for students in their pursuit of higher education, and swims with the Brock Masters Swim Team.

The Acting President and Vice-Chancellor will request the graduands to rise in their places and, when they have done so, will address them as follows:

"With the Degrees about to be conferred upon you there comes a certain expectation that you will continue sincerely in the pursuit of learning and truth and, that as far as in you lies, you will promote the interests and welfare of your University."

"Do you acknowledge this expectation?"

The graduands will answer in unison:

"We do."

The Acting President and Vice-Chancellor will then address the Chancellor as follows:

"Madam Chancellor, as the candidates have acknowledged the responsibilities that accompany their degrees and certificates and, as they have successfully completed the courses of study prescribed by Senate, I would ask that you admit them to their several degrees and certificates."

The Chancellor says:

"I admit you. Please be seated."

Keep your curiosity alive. Explore new ideas, question what you think you know, and don't be afraid to step outside your comfort zone. Every experiment, even the ones that fail, moves you forward. Curiosity is what turns the unknown into possibility.”
