

111th Convocation for the Conferring of Degrees and Certificates

Faculty of Social Sciences

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2022

History of Brock University

Opened in 1964, Brock University is named for Major-General Sir Isaac Brock, who died in battle at nearby Queenston Heights in the War of 1812. Brock's final words were said to have been "Push on, my brave fellows!" A Latin translation of this is "Surgite!" — which is Brock University's motto.

The seeds of the University were sown long before the doors first opened. Brock's story is about a community that rose up and built the institution it wanted for its future.

In the late 1950s, there was growing public discussion about how Niagara should have its own university. The grassroots sentiment became a movement in 1957 when the Allanburg Women's Institute asked the Ontario government to consider opening a university in the region.

By fall 1962, the Brock Founders Committee was incorporated. They received approval to create a new university, then developed an administrative and academic plan. Then they began raising money.

After years of meetings and fundraising, Brock opened in September 1964. It had 127 students in a refurbished refrigeration factory at the foot of the Niagara Escarpment in St. Catharines. In 1966, the landmark Brock Tower was completed, and Faculties began moving "up the hill" to the University's permanent home atop the Niagara Escarpment.

For the next 30 years, Brock sent thousands of graduates on to successful careers. It built a name for its personal quality of teaching afforded by attentive faculty and controlled class sizes. As the new millennium dawned, enrolment soared. Brock transformed from an undergraduate institute to a comprehensive University with flourishing research, graduate and doctoral programs.

The campus steadily expanded to keep pace with the demand for a Brock education with the construction of world-class research labs, a landmark fine arts complex, an international students' centre and a new research and innovation hub.

Brock serves its community as a cultural, academic and recreational centre, bringing excellent facilities to the people who created the University all those years ago. We are committed to building our community and fostering an environment that serves our students and our neighbours.

The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial role, are medieval in origin.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or Convocation, is the modern equivalent of the full congregation of all Faculties, is followed by the Chancellor and the Mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods and caps declare in their various designs and colours the academic qualifications of the faculty. The citations and presentations by the faculty to the Chancellor attest to the Chancellor and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University.

The Chancellor confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. The statement "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within those of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students to the University. They receive what the University has been and what it is today. The graduates are what the University hopes to be.

The University Flag

Our flag is the Banner of Arms of the Grant of Arms to Brock University, granted on March 17, 1965. The main feature on the flag is a gold-winged eagle with the book of learning on its breast. Yellow and red are colours associated with academic institutions and the eagle was once thought to be the bird that flew the highest and was the wisest.

The top the flag includes the maple leaf, representing Canada; a trillium representing Ontario and a shell (escallop)-a symbol long associated with the Lincoln-Welland Regiment and the County of Welland. The flag, donated by the members of Brock's 1994 Quarter Century Club, stands on the stage for each Convocation ceremony and is flown daily on campus.

The University Mace

Maces were originally specialized war clubs, made of metal or garnished with metal spikes used by knights or other warriors.

This functional weapon evolved into a symbolic emblem of legislative and civic authority used by cities and towns and, ultimately, by parliament. Many universities have decorated maces as symbols of their corporate identity and authority.

Brock was presented with its mace in 1992 as a gift from the people of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the birthplace of Major-General Sir Isaac Brock.

It is made of sterling silver and incorporates the Guernsey seal; the University crest; a crown from the Constable's baton; flames of learning from the University's coat of arms, a maple leaf, scallop shell and Trillium flower, which are symbols of the University; and a button from the uniform of Brock's 49th regiment.

A Warm Welcome From Brock University's Aboriginal Education Council

We at Brock University would like to acknowledge and honour the ancestors of those on whose traditional lands we gather today. Brock University is located on the shared lands of the Original Peoples, which became known as the traditional beaver hunting grounds. The Aboriginal Education Council and Brock University have worked collaboratively to keep the importance of our shared history, friendship and future relationships in our minds and hearts. We would like to recognize the successes of our Indigenous graduates and all those graduating today.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Beta Gamma Sigma is the honour society serving business programs accredited by AACSB International - The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest recognition a business student anywhere in the world can receive in a business program accredited by AACSB International. Brock received accreditation to AACSB in 2003, joining top international business schools, and in 2004 was admitted into Beta Gamma Sigma.

Membership in this honours society is offered only to the best business and accounting students: undergraduates completing third year in the top 10 percent of their class and graduates ranking in the top 10 per cent of their undergraduate programs or top 20 per cent of their master's program.

Campus Wide Co-Curriculum

The Campus-Wide Co-Curriculum is a program designed to enhance the Brock student experience through the completion of activities and opportunities within 10 different co-curricular domains.

By completing the Campus-Wide Co-Curriculum, a student has made a meaningful investment in their holistic development and has demonstrated a significant commitment to continuous learning and personal growth. Students who complete the program are eligible to be inducted into the Isaac Brock Insignia Circle, a distinguished society of current students and alumni who are highly engaged in the Brock experience.

This distinction is acknowledged by a red cord worn by the graduand.

Academic Regalia

Academic regalia at Convocation is steeped in tradition. All participants wear gowns, which are reminiscent of the robes worn by monks or clergy in medieval times. Hoods, worn draped over the shoulders and back, are derivatives of the simple coverings worn by people of all classes to keep their heads warm in an inhospitable climate.

The Chancellor's gown is made from aegean blue silk and trimmed with gold lace. It is worn with a round velvet cap with a gold tassel. The Vice-Chancellor's gown is similar, but trimmed with silver. The University coat-of-arms is embroidered on the front facing of each gown. Honorary doctors wear gowns made of blue material with gold facings down the front and on each sleeve.

Faculty members wear the academic regalia appropriate to their degrees. Most doctoral gowns are more than one colour and many have three horizontal bars of velvet on each sleeve. Hoods signify the degrees and institutions from which they were received. Since Brock has faculty who graduated from scores of different universities, the Convocation procession is dramatic and colourful.

Brock's graduates wear aegean blue gowns and, after being admitted to their degrees, don distinctive hoods which identify them as graduates of our University. Made of scarlet viyella, the hoods are lined with navy blue and gold material. Three bars of navy blue are set against the gold in a manner that suggests a dress uniform that might have been worn by General Brock.

The edge of each hood is trimmed with velvet in the appropriate colour for the degree:

Honour Cords

Honour cords are worn by graduands meeting the following criteria:

Graduands who have completed a 20-credit honours program with first-class honours standing, which requires a minimum 80 per cent average in all major credits and a minimum of 70 per cent in the remaining credits. As well, a transfer student must have completed a minimum of five credits at Brock University, including all departmental honours requirements for Year 4 and have maintained a minimum 75 per cent overall average and a minimum 80 per cent major average (based on Brock courses only).

or:

Graduands who have completed the approved 15-credit pass degree or 20-credit non-honours degree with a minimum 80 per cent overall average. Transfer students require a minimum 80 per cent cumulative average in all Brock courses and a minimum 80 per cent overall average.

Message of congratulations

HILARY
PEARSON

Chancellor

My warmest congratulations to you, the graduates of 2022. You are going out into a world that is being challenged by huge events — the pandemic and its consequences, and the search for sustainable and equitable growth in the face of climate change and other global disruptions. There is great opportunity here for you. Brock has given you skills, experiences and values that will equip you well to meet what is out there. With creativity, entrepreneurial ambition and confidence, you are the talent that Canada and the world need to work through the challenges of the coming decades. You are moving on from the University community with great anticipation and excitement. But I know that you, as new alumni, will remain valued members of the Brock family. I am pleased to have the opportunity to congratulate you and your loved ones for the success that has brought you to this day. I wish you well as you begin to make your contribution to the future that we all hope will be a bright and healthy one.

LYNN
WELLS

Interim President and Vice-Chancellor Provost and Vice-President, Academic

Today is a celebration of your achievements at Brock University. On this occasion, I want to offer you and your family my sincerest congratulations. Everyone at Brock is so pleased that you chose to pursue your studies at our institution. We are so proud of everything you have accomplished during your time with us. Think of how much you have changed since your first days on campus. Think of the skills and confidence that you have gained and that you will take with you into the world. Think of the exams and assignments, the late nights and early mornings, and the different kinds of social experiences like co-ops, exchanges, and sports events that have shaped you.

Your experience at Brock University has changed you. As we emerge from an unprecedented moment in history, you are prepared to leave Brock as a graduate and make a positive impact on the world. Whether through your career, further studies, or volunteer opportunities, you are well prepared for life as an engaged citizen. You have the tools you need to keep learning throughout your life. Your education is with you forever, informing your decisions and helping to forge your path. Remember the lessons you learned at Brock and you will always be well served!

Please take a moment to thank the family and friends who supported you through this time. They deserve your heartfelt thanks.

Enjoy every second of this special day — you have earned it!

MARK ARTHUR

Chair, Board of Trustees

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, it gives me great pleasure to congratulate each of you upon your graduation from Brock University.

The past few years have been filled with adversity, hard work, incredible experiences and memories. During that time, you also have evolved and grown, and are now ready for new challenges.

Brock has provided you with the resources to succeed in your future endeavours and the lessons you learned have prepared you for a full and rewarding life and career. You have a degree from an outstanding University, and that provides you with a lifelong key to many opportunities.

Allow me to also welcome you to the fast-growing ranks of Brock Alumni which, after this week, will surpass 115,000 alumni. May the memories and knowledge you have gained at Brock University carry you forward and contribute to the communities of which you are a part.

We hope you keep in touch, share your experiences and visit when you are able.

Live your best life and change the world! Surgite.

GREG PLATA

President, Brock University Alumni Association

In 1967, 39 graduating students received degrees at Brock's first Convocation ceremony. Today, you join more than 115,000 proud graduates who are willing to connect with you, mentor you and build a supportive community that advocates for our collective successes as a member of the Brock University Alumni Association (BUAA). The BUAA represents the interests of our expansive alumni community, creates opportunities to stay engaged with the Brock community and recognizes alumni achievements through our Recognition of Excellence programming. Congratulations on this remarkable accomplishment and welcome to the Brock alumni family.

Message of congratulations

HALEY MYATT

President, Graduate Students' Association

Every person is like a book. Beyond our covers, we hold tales, memories and an awkward page break or two. Our chapters are unique to us, but today, we celebrate a common thread in this closing chapter.

As you begin to write the next chapter of your lives, I hope that you can fondly reflect on your time at Brock University and cherish the relations you've made, the hurdles you've surpassed and the achievements you've garnered. Your dedication and perseverance have not gone unnoticed. We, as a community, are immensely proud of you in all that you have accomplished here.

In your next chapters, I hope that you make bold strokes and craft ambitious tales, taking along all that you have learned at Brock and creating something positively impactful, be it for one or for many. On behalf of the Graduate Students' Association and the rest of the graduate community, we wish you all the best in the years to come. Prost!

FATEN DARBAJ

President, Brock University Students' Union

The connections you've made within the community at Brock University will carry on even though your undergraduate degree might have come to an end. We're proud of your persistence and you should be too. We're celebrating your willingness to take on life's challenges, learn, grow, explore and step out of your comfort zone throughout your time at Brock University. Our final year at university has been anything but normal. Despite the circumstances, you still made it. In the face of uncertainty, you adapted to learning in a virtual setting, you helped out your community when they needed it the most and truly understood the value of overcoming adversity together. This is just the beginning of your journey, and we can't wait to see the mark you leave on the world.

Awards in Excellence

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT BOB DAVIS

ST. CATHARINES

For more than half a century, Bob Davis has been a name intrinsically linked with Brock University athletics.

Having grown up in Moose Jaw, Sask., and earned his Master of Science from University of Oregon, Davis taught elementary, high school and college before being hired by the late Arnie Lowenberger as Assistant Professor in Brock's budding Physical Education Department.

Over three decades at Brock, Davis built one of the strongest varsity programs in the country, growing athletics from a handful of teams to 32 and spearheading the transformation of Brock's moniker from the Generals to Badgers in the early 1970s.

Davis served many roles during his tenure before retiring in 2001 including Director of Athletics, Professor of Physical Education, Chairman of the Department of Athletic Services in the School of Physical Education and Recreation, and Acting Assistant Dean of the Faculty of Applied Health Sciences.

He was last president of the Ontario Universities Athletic Association and the first President of Ontario University Athletics. In 2002, the University officially renamed the former Gym One to Bob Davis Gymnasium. The Surgite Award, an honour presented to the top student-athlete who excels in academics and athletics, is also named after him and is known as the RM Davis Surgite Award.

Davis was inducted into the St. Catharines Sports Hall of Fame in 2003, the Brock Athletics Hall of Fame in 2005 as a builder and to the Niagara Golf Wall of Recognition in 2021.

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT DEENA LADD

TORONTO

Deena Ladd has been working to improve wages and working conditions in sectors of work that are dominated with low wages, violations of rights, and precarious and temporary work for the past 29 years.

She has worked to support and develop grassroots training, education and organizing with groups such as the Fight for $15 and Fairness Campaign, Decent Work and Health Network as well as the Migrant Workers Alliance for Change.

Ladd is one of the founders and Executive Director of the Toronto Workers' Action Centre, which works to improve wages and working conditions for low-waged workers, women and racialized and immigrant workers in precarious jobs that face discrimination, violations of rights and no benefits in the workplace.

HONORARY DOCTORATE RECIPIENT DAVID LEPOFSKY

TORONTO

David Lepofsky is a visiting Professor of Disability Rights and Legal Education at the Osgoode Hall Law School and a past adjunct member of the University of Toronto Faculty of Law. He is chair of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act Alliance, a member and past chair of the Toronto District School Board's Special Education Advisory Committee and is also a member of the Kindergarten-Grade 12 Education Standards Development Committee appointed by the Ontario Government to recommend reforms to tear down barriers impeding students with disabilities.

Lepofsky earned his Bachelor of Laws from Osgoode Hall Law School in 1979 and a Master of Laws from the Harvard Law School in 1982. He practised law in Toronto with the Ontario Ministry of the Attorney General until 2015, including more than a decade as General Counsel.

A champion for disability rights, he led the Ontarians with Disabilities Act Committee for 10 years, fighting for the Ontarians with Disabilities Act 2001 and the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act 2005. In 2009, he became the Chair of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act Alliance.

Lepofsky was named to the Order of Canada (1995), the Order of Ontario (2007) and the Terry Fox Hall of Fame (2003), and he has previously received honorary doctorates from Queen's University, the University of Western Ontario and the Law Society of Upper Canada, as well as receiving many awards for his work in law and fighting for disability rights.

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

SHAUNA POMERANTZ

PROFESSOR OF CHILD AND YOUTH STUDIES

Shauna Pomerantz is a Professor of Child and Youth Studies in the Faculty of Social Science. Her research sits at the crossroads of critical sociology and youth cultural studies, with a focus on girlhood, social media, popular culture, gender and education, teen social worlds and critiques of assumptions that children's knowledge is less valuable than that of adults. She has written books, book chapters and articles on girls' cultural practices, identity negotiations and popular representations.

Pomerantz has taught graduate and undergraduate classes at Brock for 16 years on topics such as popular cultures of children and youth, sociology of childhood and socio-cultural theories. Shaking up the classroom through untraditional methods, topical humour and unbridled enthusiasm is part of her teaching style, which also includes compassion to foster spaces where students can express themselves, ask for help and know they will be seen as unique people who learn within diverse contexts.

Conferring of Degrees and Certificates

The President and Vice-Chancellor will request the graduands to rise in their places and, when they have done so, will address them as follows:

"With the Degrees about to be conferred upon you there comes a certain expectation that you will continue sincerely in the pursuit of learning and truth and, that as far as in you lies, you will promote the interests and welfare of your University."

"Do you acknowledge this expectation?"

The graduands will answer in unison:

"We do."

The President and Vice-Chancellor will then address the Chancellor as follows:

“Madam Chancellor, as the candidates have acknowledged the responsibilities that accompany their degrees and certificates and, as they have successfully completed the courses of study prescribed by Senate, I would ask that you admit them to their several degrees and certificates.”

The Chancellor says:

“I admit you. Please be seated.”

Alumni Association greeting

Closing remarks

Dismissal

“O Canada” (the audience will please rise).

O Canada!

Our home and native land!

True patriot love in all of us command.

With glowing hearts, we see thee rise,

The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Ô Canada!

Terre de nos aïeux,

Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!

Car ton bras sait porter l'épée,

Il sait porter la croix!

Ton histoire est une épopée

Des plus brillants exploits.

Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,

Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Conferring of Degrees and Certificates

The President and Vice-Chancellor will request the graduands to rise in their places and, when they have done so, will address them as follows:

"With the Degrees about to be conferred upon you there comes a certain expectation that you will continue sincerely in the pursuit of learning and truth and, that as far as in you lies, you will promote the interests and welfare of your University."

"Do you acknowledge this expectation?"

The graduands will answer in unison:

"We do."

The President and Vice-Chancellor will then address the Chancellor as follows:

"Madam Chancellor, as the candidates have acknowledged the responsibilities that accompany their degrees and certificates and, as they have successfully completed the courses of study prescribed by Senate, I would ask that you admit them to their several degrees and certificates."

The Chancellor says:

“I admit you. Please be seated.”

Alumni Association greeting

Closing remarks

Dismissal

“O Canada” (the audience will please rise).

O Canada!

Our home and native land!

True patriot love in all of us command.

With glowing hearts, we see thee rise,

The True North strong and free!

From far and wide,

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

God keep our land glorious and free!

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

Ô Canada!

Terre de nos aïeux,

Ton front est ceint de fleurons glorieux!

Car ton bras sait porter l’épée,

Il sait porter la croix!

Ton histoire est une épopée

Des plus brillants exploits.

Et ta valeur, de foi trempée,

Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Protégera nos foyers et nos droits.

Graduates of Brock University’s Class of 2022 have the skills, knowledge and resilience that position them for future success. Despite the many challenges of the past two years, they have persevered to complete their programs and to keep the Brock community vibrant and engaged. For nearly sixty years, Brock graduates have made positive contributions to the Niagara Region and all around the world. We are proud of all that you have accomplished, and today we celebrate your achievements and your indomitable spirit.”
