

119th Convocation for the Conferring of Degrees and Certificates

Faculty of Applied Health Sciences

Congratulations
Class of 2026

History of Brock University

Opened in 1964, Brock University is named for Major-General Sir Isaac Brock, who died in battle at nearby Queenston Heights in the War of 1812. Brock's final words were said to have been "Push on, my brave fellows!" A Latin translation of this is "Surgite!" — which is Brock University's motto.

The seeds of the University were sown long before the doors first opened. Brock's story is about a community that rose up and built the institution it wanted for its future.

In the late 1950s, there was growing public discussion about how Niagara should have its own university. The grassroots sentiment became a movement in 1957 when the Allanburg Women's Institute asked the Ontario government to consider opening a university in the region.

By fall 1962, the Brock Founders Committee was incorporated. They received approval to create a new university, then developed an administrative and academic plan. Then they began raising money.

After years of meetings and fundraising, Brock opened in September 1964. It had 127 students in a refurbished refrigeration factory at the foot of the Niagara Escarpment in St. Catharines. In 1966, the landmark Brock Tower was completed, and Faculties began moving "up the hill" to the University's permanent home atop the Niagara Escarpment.

For the next 30 years, Brock sent thousands of graduates on to successful careers. It built a name for its personal quality of teaching afforded by attentive faculty and controlled class sizes. As the new millennium dawned, enrolment soared. Brock transformed from an undergraduate institute to a comprehensive University with flourishing research, graduate and doctoral programs.

The campus steadily expanded to keep pace with the demand for a Brock education with the construction of world-class research labs, a landmark fine arts complex, an international students' centre and a new research and innovation hub.

Brock serves its community as a cultural, academic and recreational centre, bringing excellent facilities to the people who created the University all those years ago. We are committed to building our community and fostering an environment that serves our students and our neighbours.

The modern university is the lineal descendant of the university of the Middle Ages. Its purposes and organization, even much of its ceremonial role, are medieval in origin.

Today's ceremony stems from the medieval tradition. The procession of the guild of teachers, whose solemn assembly, or Convocation, is the modern equivalent of the full congregation of all Faculties, is followed by the Chancellor and the Mace, the symbol of the University's corporate authority. The academic gowns, hoods and caps declare in their various designs and colours the academic qualifications of the faculty. The citations and presentations by the faculty to the Chancellor attest to the Chancellor and to society the degree of proficiency attained by the students of the University.

The Chancellor confers upon the students the appropriate degree. It is the act, not a certificate, which constitutes the validity of the degree bestowed. The statement "I admit you" and the placing of the students' hands within those of the Chancellor and his associates, bind the students to the University. They receive what the University has been and what it is today. The graduates are what the University hopes to be.

The University flag

Our flag is the Banner of Arms of the Grant of Arms to Brock University, granted on March 17, 1965. The main feature on the flag is a gold-winged eagle with the book of learning on its breast. Yellow and red are colours associated with academic institutions and the eagle was once thought to be the bird that flew the highest and was the wisest.

The top of the flag includes the maple leaf, representing Canada; a trillium representing Ontario and a shell (escallop)-a symbol long associated with the Lincoln-Welland Regiment and the County of Welland. The flag, donated by the members of Brock's 1994 Quarter Century Club, stands on the stage for each Convocation ceremony and is flown daily on campus.

The University mace

Maces were originally specialized war clubs, made of metal or garnished with metal spikes used by knights or other warriors.

This functional weapon evolved into a symbolic emblem of legislative and civic authority used by cities and towns and, ultimately, by parliament. Many universities have decorated maces as symbols of their corporate identity and authority.

Brock was presented with its mace in 1992 as a gift from the people of the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the birthplace of Major-General Sir Isaac Brock.

It is made of sterling silver and incorporates the Guernsey seal; the University crest; a crown from the Constable's baton; flames of learning from the University's coat of arms, a maple leaf, scallop shell and Trillium flower, which are symbols of the University; and a button from the uniform of Brock's 49th regiment.

Eagle Staff

The Eagle Staff is sacred and clears the way for everything that comes after it.

An Eagle staff is used by Indigenous nations to represent their people and honour the veterans or warriors of the past and present.

This Eagle Staff was created for the Hadiya'dagénhahs First Nations, Métis and Inuit Student Centre at Brock University by Nipissing First Nation Elder Abiidaasmosede and includes four beaded medallions by Cayuga and Tuscarora beadwork artist Mary Annette Printup-Clause.

During the ceremony, the staff faces east to represent new beginnings.

Beta Gamma Sigma

Beta Gamma Sigma is the honour society serving business programs accredited by AACSB International — the Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business.

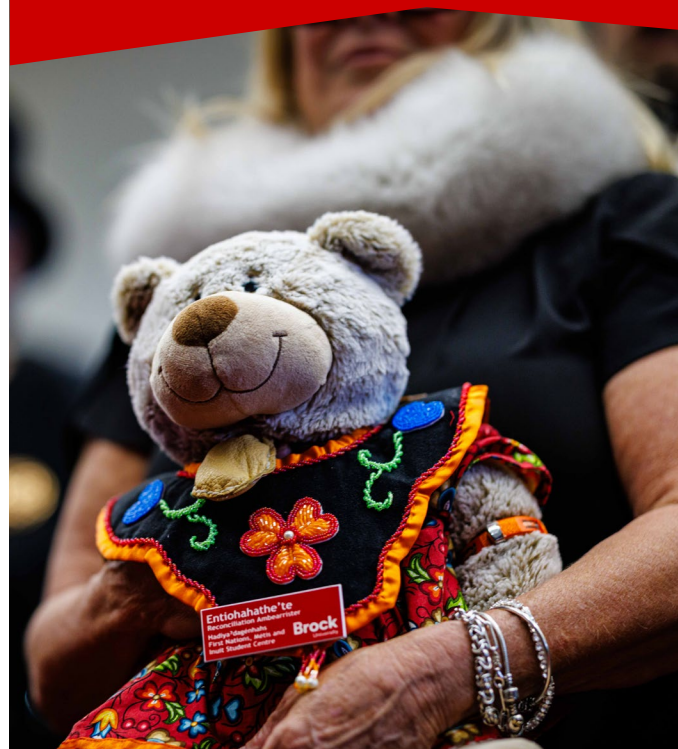

Membership in Beta Gamma Sigma is the highest recognition a business student anywhere in the world can receive in a business program accredited by AACSB International. Brock received accreditation to AACSB in 2003, joining top international business schools, and in 2004 was admitted into Beta Gamma Sigma.

Membership in this honours society is offered only to the best business and accounting students: undergraduates completing third year in the top 10 per cent of their class and graduates ranking in the top 10 per cent of their undergraduate programs or top 20 per cent of their master's program.

Ambearrister

An 'Ambearrister' was gifted to Brock University in 2020 by Dr. Cindy Blackstock, Director of First Nations Child and Family Caring Society (FNCFC). This bear, an extension of the 'Reconciliation Ambearrister' program, is an initiative and resource created by the Caring Society to address inequalities of Indigenous children, youth and families. Today, this program extends itself to uplift reconciliation efforts from all peoples, recognizing that if reconciliation is to take place it must reside within each and everyone. The program also acknowledges that reconciliation and "addressing discrimination takes love, honesty, compassion and a real commitment to helping others do the right thing" (FNCFC). Under the guidance of an Elder, Brock's 'Ambearrister' received their name: Entiohathé'te (It will be a bright road/path). Entiohathé'te is meant to help us move forward and do work that supports these words. More importantly, they encourage thought on how we can act on these words and make ideas and concepts surrounding reconciliation a reality at Brock University. Entiohathé'te will also be a gentle reminder for the University to commit to the Calls for Action offered by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

Entiohathé'te's has found a home in The Phyllis Webstad Library located in Hadiya'dagénhahs First Nations, Métis and Inuit Student Centre.

Campus Wide Co-Curriculum

The Campus-Wide Co-Curriculum is a program designed to enhance the Brock student experience through the completion of activities and opportunities within 10 different co-curricular domains.

By completing the Campus-Wide Co-Curriculum, a student has made a meaningful investment in their holistic development and has demonstrated a significant commitment to continuous learning and personal growth.

This distinction is acknowledged by a red cord worn by the graduand.

Academic regalia

Academic regalia at Convocation is steeped in tradition. All participants wear gowns, which are reminiscent of the robes worn by monks or clergy in medieval times. Hoods, worn draped over the shoulders and back, are derivatives of the simple coverings worn by people of all classes to keep their heads warm in an inhospitable climate.

The Chancellor's gown is made from 100% natural tropical wool and trimmed with gold lace. It is worn with a round velvet cap with a gold tassel. The Vice-Chancellor's gown is similar, but trimmed with silver. The University coat-of-arms is embroidered on the front facing of each gown. Honorary doctors wear gowns made of blue material with gold facings down the front and on each sleeve.

Faculty members wear the academic regalia appropriate to their degrees. Most doctoral gowns are more than one colour and many have three horizontal bars of velvet on each sleeve. Hoods signify the degrees and institutions from which they were received. Since Brock has faculty who graduated from scores of different universities, the Convocation procession is dramatic and colourful.

Honour cords

Honour cords are worn by graduands meeting the following criteria:

Graduands who have completed a 20-credit honours program with first-class honours standing, which requires a minimum 80 per cent average in all major credits and a minimum of 70 per cent in the remaining credits. As well, a transfer student must have completed a minimum of five credits at Brock University, including all departmental honours requirements for Year 4 and have maintained a minimum 75 per cent overall average and a minimum 80 per cent major average (based on Brock courses only).

or:

Graduands who have completed the approved 15-credit pass degree or 20-credit non-honours degree with a minimum 80 per cent overall average. Transfer students require a minimum 80 per cent cumulative average in all Brock courses and a minimum 80 per cent overall average.

Message of congratulations

Hilary Pearson

Chancellor

Congratulations!

Today marks the end of one chapter and the beginning of another. A chapter filled with opportunities to contribute, lead and make a difference in ways large and small.

The world you are entering is complex and constantly changing. It needs people who are willing to think critically and approach challenges with imagination and integrity. These are qualities you have strengthened during your time at Brock.

Universities are places where ideas are tested, perspectives are broadened and communities are built. Through your studies, your conversations and your experiences both inside and outside the classroom, you have become part of that tradition.

You now join more than 125,000 Brock alumni whose work and contributions are helping to strengthen communities across Niagara, Canada and around the world.

As you move forward, I hope you continue to seek out opportunities to learn from others, contribute generously and remain open to where curiosity may lead you next.

On behalf of Brock University, congratulations on all you have achieved, and best wishes for the future ahead.

Lesley Rigg

President and Vice-Chancellor

Congratulations to the Class of 2026!

Reaching this moment represents years of commitment and perseverance. Along the way, you have developed not only knowledge and expertise, but also the confidence to navigate uncertainty and embrace new opportunities.

At Brock, we believe universities play an important role in shaping stronger communities and a better future. Through research, learning, creativity and connection, universities help address the challenges facing our society while preparing graduates to lead meaningful lives and careers.

As Brock graduates, you now carry that responsibility forward.

Whether you continue your studies, begin a new career, launch a business or pursue another path entirely, the experiences and relationships you built here will remain part of your foundation. Your perspectives, ideas and contributions matter, and the world will be better because of them.

You will always be part of the Brock community, and we look forward to seeing all that you accomplish in the years ahead.

Congratulations once again, and thank you for being part of Brock University's story.

Anne McCourt

Chair, Board of Trustees

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, it is my great pleasure to congratulate you on your graduation from Brock University. The past few years have been filled with hard work, unforgettable experiences, and lasting memories. During this time, you have grown, learned and prepared yourself for the challenges and opportunities ahead. Brock has provided you with the knowledge, skills, and experiences to succeed in your future endeavours, and the degree you now hold is a key that opens the door to a lifetime of opportunities. As you take this next step, know that you join a vibrant community of Brock alumni who are making a difference around the world.

May the friendships, lessons, and memories you carry from Brock University guide and inspire you as you contribute to the communities you are part of. We encourage you to stay connected, share your journey, and return to visit whenever you can.

Live fully, lead boldly, and help shape a better world. Surgite!

Christopher Yendt

President, Brock University
Alumni Association

In 1967, the first 39 students at Brock University became the first alumni at their Convocation. Today, you join more than 125,000 proud alumni who are willing to connect with you, mentor you and build a supportive community that advocates for our collective successes as a member of the Brock University Alumni Association (BUAA). Brock is a place where passion meets opportunity — a place where you can make your own path and your own meaning. You were tenacious and accomplished so much as students. You earned this moment today. Grabbing hold of these opportunities is what gives Brock students their Badger Spirit. As you enjoy your first day as a member of the BUAA, remember to continue cultivating your Badger Spirit. The BUAA is here to be your home when you want to come back and visit, create opportunities for you to stay engaged and be your biggest cheerleader as you enter the next phases of life. We are so proud of all you've done so far, and we can't wait to see what you do next. Congratulations, and welcome to the alumni family. Surgite!

Eric O'Neill

President, Graduate Students'
Association

On behalf of the Graduate Students' Association, I want to extend a sincere congratulations to all of you for this significant accomplishment. Getting to this point took real time and real effort. Completing a degree, especially a graduate degree, requires hard work and dedication, and you've likely navigated your share of setbacks and more than a few moments of self-doubt, but you came out on the other side.

Beyond your degree, I hope you leave Brock with something less tangible but just as valuable — the relationships you built, the conversations that challenged how you think, and the habit of staying curious will carry further than any credential.

And before you move onto your next chapter, make sure you find some time to take a break: you've earned it!

Aaliyah Ariella

President, Brock University
Students' Union

On behalf of BUSU and myself, I'd like to congratulate you on your fantastic achievement. I understand that the journey here was not always simple. It was filled with sleepless nights, long hours of assignments, hectic deadlines, group projects, exam season worry, and much-needed library breaks just to grab more coffee and keep going.

There were certainly times when you wondered if you'd make it through, but you kept showing up. You persevered through the difficult weeks, balanced your obligations, encouraged one another, the friendships made, and the overall drive to keep going. That kind of determination is remarkable.

Today isn't only about finishing your degree. It is about appreciating the development, resilience, and hard work required to get here. You made it through, and you deserve to enjoy every aspect of your success.

Congratulations, class of 2026!

Award in Excellence and Convocation speakers

Michelle Vine

Assistant Professor,
Department of Health Sciences

Faculty Award for Excellence in Teaching Convocation Speaker – Morning Ceremony

My research interests include public health practice, program evaluation, school nutrition policy, school health, and child and youth health. The goal of my research is to understand how the environments we occupy – where we live, work and play – impact our health. I primarily use qualitative methods when conducting my research. Most recently, my research has focused on the nutrition policy environment in Ontario secondary schools, health literacy, and the mental health of adolescents. My work also focuses on the scholarship of teaching and learning in higher education.

I obtained a PhD in Health Geography from McMaster University ('13), and an MA in Sociology from Acadia University ('06). I hold the Credentialed Evaluator designation from the Canadian Evaluation Society, and after completing my PhD, was employed as an Evaluation Specialist at Public Health Ontario.

Mike Holmes

Associate Professor,
Department of Kinesiology

Faculty Award for Excellence in Research Convocation Speaker – Afternoon Ceremony

Dr. Mike Holmes is an Associate Professor in the Department of Kinesiology at Brock University where he holds an NSERC Tier II Canada Research Chair in Neuromuscular Mechanics and Ergonomics. His research program investigates how anatomy, muscle recruitment and neuromuscular control strategies influence tissue loading and injury risk. His lab integrates neurophysiology and biomechanics techniques to better understand work-related upper extremity disorders by identifying mechanisms of fatigue, injury, and pain. The lab aims to optimize human performance at work and sport by developing recommendations to minimize the risk of injury and maximize performance.

Conferring of Degrees and Certificates

The President and Vice-Chancellor will request the graduands to rise in their places and, when they have done so, will address them as follows:

"With the Degrees about to be conferred upon you there comes a certain expectation that you will continue sincerely in the pursuit of learning and truth and, that as far as in you lies, you will promote the interests and welfare of your University."

"Do you acknowledge this expectation?"

The graduands will answer in unison:

"We do."

The President and Vice-Chancellor will then address the Chancellor as follows:

"Madam Chancellor, as the candidates have acknowledged the responsibilities that accompany their degrees and certificates and, as they have successfully completed the courses of study prescribed by Senate, I would ask that you admit them to their several degrees and certificates."

The Chancellor says:

“I admit you. Please be seated.”

The Convocation Address

Dr. Michael Holmes

Conferring of Degrees and Certificates

The President and Vice-Chancellor will request the graduands to rise in their places and, when they have done so, will address them as follows:

"With the Degrees about to be conferred upon you there comes a certain expectation that you will continue sincerely in the pursuit of learning and truth and, that as far as in you lies, you will promote the interests and welfare of your University."

"Do you acknowledge this expectation?"

The graduands will answer in unison:

"We do."

The President and Vice-Chancellor will then address the Chancellor as follows:

"Madam Chancellor, as the candidates have acknowledged the responsibilities that accompany their degrees and certificates and, as they have successfully completed the courses of study prescribed by Senate, I would ask that you admit them to their several degrees and certificates."

The Chancellor says:

"I admit you. Please be seated."
