

Mission Statement

Instructional Resource Centre (IRC) Mission Statement

Reviewed and updated by:

The Faculty of Education, Library Advisory Committee, January 2016

Next Review: 2019

The purpose of Brock University's Instructional Resource Centre at the Hamilton and St. Catharines campuses is to provide specialized instructional resources, and services to support Faculty of Education programs, through the promotion and circulation of curriculum resources and media services. Although focused on Faculty of Education program support, the university community, local educators and Faculty of Education alumni are also welcome to utilize the centre's resources.

Goals and Objectives

1. To develop an instructional resource library that equitably and adequately supports the needs of the Faculty of Education programs and teaching practica in Ontario elementary and secondary schools.
2. To develop a collection of current instructional technology and associated services to meet the instructional needs of Faculty of Education programs.
3. To provide curriculum library facilities to meet Faculty of Education students' individual and small group study needs.
4. To promote new instructional resources to users in the Faculty of Education.