

Faculty of Education Master of Education Funded Research Fellowship

The purpose of the Research Fellowship is to provide support for full-time Master of Education funded students in the Research Pathway. Students undertaking a thesis or MRP may apply. For the 2021-22 academic year, the Faculty of Education will provide Research Fellowship Awards of $2,500 ($1,250/Winter term and $1,250/Spring-Summer). Fellowships do not require employment.

To be eligible, students must meet the following criteria:

- a) Be registered as a full-time funded student in the Research Pathway.
- b) Be registered in the thesis or MRP at the time of application.
- c) Include Research Plan (page 4).
- d) Include Advisor's Statement of Support (page 5).

Students may apply for the Fellowship annually. A second fellowship will be awarded only to students who continue to meet the assessment criteria stated below. Students who receive a Research Fellowship may also apply for Research Assistantships, Teaching Assistantships, and other scholarships as relevant.

Students must apply in writing for the Research Fellowship. Their application documents must include:

- o An Application Form for the Master of Education Research Fellowship.
- o A Research Plan that includes the area of research interest, rationale for the research, and anticipated timeline (max. 500 words). You may include information about research tasks such as literature search, research design, ethics review, data collection and analysis, and reporting.
- o An Advisor's Statement of Support, outlining the role of the research advisor in the candidate's program of study. Please include information about the candidate's research potential (i.e., quality of analytical skills; ability to think critically; ability to apply skills and knowledge, judgement, originality, initiative and autonomy; determination and ability to complete projects within an appropriate period) and an advisement plan for developing the candidate's research competency (max. 500 words).

Application will be assessed by the Faculty of Education Research Fellowship Adjudication Committee. Assessment of the applications is based on:

- o Quality of the Research Plan
- o Quality of the Advisement Plan
- o Advisor's assessment of the applicant
- o Evidence of actual or expected progress toward program completion
- o Academic excellence

Applications must be submitted to Ms. Diem Chanhavang, Administrative Assistant, Office of the Associate Dean, Graduate Student Services, Research and International, Welch Hall 106 at dchanhsavang@brocku.ca.
