
Here are some tips when reviewing your financial history:

- 1) Make sure that the date at the top of the page pre-dates (is before) when you sent your deposit to Brock. That way you will see all of the information.

- 2) If the amount is in (brackets) then it is a credit on your account, and you do not owe anything at this time.

- 3) Click/open the Financial History at the bottom of the page to show all transactions.

- 4) Print from your browser (or ctrl-P) to print out your entire history from beginning to end. You can use this for study permit applications or other times when you need a receipt.
