What is the campus wide co-curriculum (CWC)?

The campus wide co-curriculum (CWC) is an involvement guide that will help you make the most out of your university experience at Brock University. There are 10 different co-curricular domains with various engagement items within each domain for you to navigate through. All of the items within each domain involve engaging in activities and tracking your engagement to both enhance your post-secondary experience and to receive co-curricular credit. You'll also get to know yourself, your campus and your community better.

For more information about the campus wide co-curriculum, head to the following link: <https://brocku.ca/experiencebu/co-curriculum/#1477493948330-5dac206f-15fc>

Why should I track my involvement through the campus wide co-curriculum (CWC)?

Tracking your involvement through the CWC will help you become a more engaged student and community member. But beyond this, for every domain tracked and completed, students will earn a seal on their CWC Certificate of Engagement and your involvement will also be tracked on your Experience Plus transcript. Engaging in a variety of experiences on campus and in the community will also allow for skill building and learning opportunities to complement your education outside of the classroom.
