GSA Program Assembly Application Form 2021-2022

About the GSA Program Assembly

The GSA Program Delegates act as a liaison between the GSA Executive and the graduate students in their programs. As representatives from within their own programs, Delegates will liaise between the GSA and their own program and represent their fellow graduate students by using their voice in the GSA. This will provide an opportunity to bring issues or concerns from within programs to the attention of the GSA and the larger graduate community.

To be eligible as a Program Delegate, an applicant must be:

- a. A member of the graduate program an individual seeks to represent;
- b. A current member of the GSA at the time of their appointment and their term of office (term of office ends August 31, 2022);
- c. Able to attend meetings;
- d. Not currently serving as a member of the GSA Board of Directors.

Program Delegate responsibilities include:

- a. Mandatory attendance at GSA Program Assembly meetings which shall be:
 - on an as-needed basis and must meet at least once (1) during the winter term but may be up to twice (2) per term, for a total of six (6) times per year
- b. Shall report on the activities, proceedings and policies of their programs at meetings of the GSA Assembly;
- c. Shall read the monthly executive reports and come to each meeting prepared with questions or concerns;
- d. Shall be actively engaged in the voting process when needed;
- e. Shall be in contact with the members in their program to ascertain their views and bring their views to the GSA Assembly;
- f. Shall commit to attending GSA Committees and events whenever possible and to promoting these within their program;
- g. Are encouraged to bring initiatives to GSA Assembly for consideration;
- h. Shall notify the Chair and Vice-Chair in advance if they are unable to attend an Assembly meeting;
- i. Those programs with cohorts at satellite campuses (e.g. Hamilton) will actively work with members from these campuses to ensure that their needs are represented at the Assembly.
