Provide a rank ordered list of three potential External Examiners: (provide name, University, contact information (mailing and email address, telephone number, fax number) and any other relevant information)

The external examiner or reader must be a recognized authority in the student's discipline area and be experienced in evaluating doctoral theses. The proposed external must be in a position to review the thesis objectively and to provide a critical analysis of the thesis and the oral defence.

It is essential that the external examiner be at Arm's Length. They must not have a current or previous association with the student, the supervisor, or the graduate program, nor be related to the Candidate or Research Supervisor(s). They should not be or have been research collaborators and/or co-authors with the Supervisor(s) within the past 6 years, regardless of whether the collaborations relate to the Candidate's dissertation work. A proposed external normally should not be nominated more frequently than once every two years.
