

Brock University Residence Agreement 2026-2027

PLEASE READ THIS AGREEMENT CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND ANY OF THE TERMS OR ARE NOT WILLING TO ABIDE BY THEM, DO NOT SIGN THIS AGREEMENT AND CONTACT HOUSING SERVICES AT housing@brocku.ca.

1. Your Accommodation

1.1. Commitment to provide accommodation

Provided you pay the residence fees set out below ("Fees") and comply with the terms of this Agreement, the University will provide you accommodation in one of the University's residences, including but not limited to DeCew, Vallee, Earp, Lowenberger, Residence 8, Village, and Quarry View ("Residences"), subject to the University's reserved rights set out in section 1.3 below.

1.2. Your room

Housing Services will assign you a room in one of the residences listed above at its discretion. Housing Services will endeavor to place you in a room according to your preferences but cannot guarantee that your preferences will be met.

1.3. Changing rooms

You must receive permission from Housing Services to change rooms. You may request a change of rooms in accordance with the Room Switch Procedures as outlined online at <https://brocku.ca/housing/important-information/room-switch-procedures/>

1.4. Reassignment

Where determined necessary by the University, you may be reassigned to another University-operated residence, including a University residence operating under a different agreement, in which case you will have the option to terminate this Agreement and leave residence or accept the residence reassignment and the associated agreement. If you accept the reassignment, you will be subject to the terms and conditions of the new agreement.

1.5. Reserved rights

The University reserves the right to delay occupancy or terminate this residence agreement with you if (1) the University determines that it is prudent or necessary to do so for reasons of public health or student safety, or (2) the University is required by law, order or directive to close one or more of its residences, to limit the number of persons residing in residence, or such other law, order or directive affecting the normal operation of its residences. In such circumstances, the University will provide you with reasonable notice and credit to your student account a portion of the residence application fee or prepaid residence fees as the University determines appropriate in its absolute discretion.

2. Term of Agreement

2.1. Period of residence

Unless otherwise determined in accordance with this Agreement, the University will provide you with accommodation in a Residence during:

- a. Fall session, from September 5 or 6, 2026 (the University will notify you of your move-in date at least 4 weeks prior to move-in) to noon on the day following your last examination, or noon on December 24, 2026, whichever occurs first, and
- b. Winter session, from noon on January 3, 2027 to noon the day following your last examination, or noon on April 22, 2027, whichever occurs first.

2.2. Winter Break

The University plans to close the Residences for Winter Break from 12pm (noon) the day after the last December examination until 12pm (noon) the day before the start of classes in January and will not provide accommodation, meals, services, nor the associated support staff during this time.

2.3. Accommodation during Winter Break or after Winter session

The University may permit you to remain in Residence during Winter Break and/or beyond the Winter session if, in the opinion of the University, you are:

- a. an international student with no means of getting home or securing alternate accommodation;
- b. a Varsity team athlete who is required to remain in residence for a team event during Winter Break;
or
- c. a student who has an academic requirement that requires you to remain on campus.

If you wish to remain in Residence during Winter Break or after the end of Winter session, you must obtain approval from the University through the process set out at: <https://brocku.ca/housing/moving-out/end-of-term-notice/>. If your application is approved by the University, in its absolute discretion, you must pay a fee of $280 for each week (or part of a week) you remain in Residence during the Winter Break or past the end of the Winter session.

3. Fees

3.1. Obligation to pay fees

You must pay to the University the Fees set by the University as listed on the Housing Services website at: <https://brocku.ca/housing/apply/residence-fees/>. Residence fees will be determined by the move in date, type of residence room and meal plan.

3.2. Due date for fees

A $500 application fee is due at the time of application. You must pay the Fees by the due dates set out in the fee schedule listed on the Housing Services website at <https://brocku.ca/housing/apply/residence-fees/payment-for-residence/>.

3.3. Outstanding balances

If you have an outstanding balance on your account (including tuition fees, residence fees, meal plan fees, incidental fees and any other outstanding fees and charges), as determined by the Finance Office, you must pay an additional interest charge at the rate set out by the University's Finance Office website at <https://brocku.ca/safa/tuition-and-fees/overdue-accounts/>. Interest charges will be assessed on the 1st of each month starting in October. Outstanding balances may also result in restrictions on student account access, which may prevent admission to residence, at the University's sole discretion.

4. Meal Plan

4.1. Obligation to purchase meal contract

If you are assigned a room in residence, you must purchase a meal plan through Brock Dining Services and comply with the rules and requirements related to the meal plan, as set by the University's Dining Services. The applicable meal plans, rates and policies are available online at <https://brocku.ca/dining-services/> which may be amended from time to time by the University.

4.2. Breaks in meal plan service

The University meal plan does not provide meals during the Winter Break between Fall and Winter terms and provides limited service during the Spring and Fall Reading Breaks. Dining hall hours are subject to change. Hours of operation are posted in advance.

4.3. Special dietary requirements

If you have a special dietary requirement, you should disclose that information in your residence application and, if applicable, provide supporting medical documentation. That information will be shared with Brock Dining Services. If you have any issues or concerns with ingredients, it is recommended that you speak to a Dining Hall Manager or Registered Dietitian. If you have a dietary restriction that requires an exemption from the mandatory meal plan, then you will be assigned to a townhouse style residence which has cooking facilities available. There is no cooking permitted in any other residences. Please note: Brock Dining Services are able to accommodate a multitude of dietary needs including students who are gluten intolerant, lactose intolerant, vegan etc. Only students with severe dietary restrictions will be exempted from the mandatory meal plan.

5. Rules and Requirements

5.1. Requirement to maintain student status

This Agreement is conditional upon you registering with Brock University as a full-time student in a degree program for 2026-27 or registering as a student in Intensive English Language Program and maintaining your student status for the duration of the Agreement.

5.2. Requirement to complete sexual violence education

All students living in residence must complete mandatory gender-based and sexual violence education (as determined by Brock University) as a condition of living in residence. This education consists of an asynchronous, virtual module and quiz, as well as an in-person workshop. Students who refuse or fail to complete such training may have their Residence Agreement terminated.

5.3. Obligation to comply with rules and regulations

During your accommodation in Residence, you must comply with all applicable laws and regulations, all University policies and procedures and the Residence Community Standards (available at: <https://brocku.ca/housing/important-information/community-standards/>). If you breach any of these rules or regulations, the University may terminate this Agreement in accordance with section 7.2 below.

In particular, you must comply with the following general rules:

- a. Residents are individually responsible for the care and proper use of all University property. Residents may either individually or jointly be held responsible for the loss or damage to the Residences or common areas. The University assumes no responsibility and is not liable for any loss or damage to the residents' personal property or injury to person.
- b. The University reserves the right to enter a residence room/unit for maintenance, repairs, cleaning, and/or inspection.
- c. The following is prohibited in and around University Residences, as outlined in the Residence Community Standards: behaviour by an individual(s) that interferes with the rights of another individual(s) to the peaceful use and enjoyment of their space in residence; behaviour that creates a significant nuisance and/or disturbance to an individual or community; behaviour which endangers the safety and security of themselves or another individual(s), and/or compromises personal or University property, and/or attacks the dignity/integrity of an individual, and/or break the laws of the land. During your accommodation, you must comply with all applicable laws and regulations and all University policies and procedures. If you breach any of these rules or regulations, the University may terminate this Agreement in accordance with section 7.2 below.

5.4. Communicable diseases

During your accommodation, you must comply with all public health and University requirements related to any communicable disease, including but not limited to COVID-19. Failure to comply with these requirements may result in restrictions or conditions imposed on your residence accommodation or termination of this Agreement in accordance with section 7.2.

5.5. Room entry

Brock University subscribes to the principle that students are entitled to enjoy a reasonable right to privacy in residence rooms. However, the student acknowledges that Brock University staff is entitled, without notice and without the Resident being present, to have authorized staff, the Institution's security services, emergency services, or the police enter the room at reasonable times under the following conditions:

- a) to provide housekeeping, repair, and maintenance services as detailed in section 5.3 of this Agreement;
- b) to ensure the safety and security of the student and/or when there is reasonable cause to believe an emergency situation has arisen;
- c) to provide routine maintenance;
- d) when there is reasonable cause to believe that terms of this Agreement and/or the obligations detailed in section 5.3 and/or the law is being violated. Authorized staff are supplied with a uniform and identification that is visible at all times.

6. Facilities and Maintenance

6.1. Obligation to maintain room in good condition

You are required to maintain the cleanliness of your room and keep your room/unit in a condition of good repair.

6.2. Responsibility for missing items, damages or cleaning

You must pay for all missing items, damages or cleaning caused to your room/unit by you or your guests. If your room/unit is shared or there are common areas, all costs for missing items, damages or cleaning will be divided and assessed equally between you and the other residents, unless the damage or disorder can be attributed to one student, then that student will be responsible for the full cost.

6.3. Inspection by the University

The University reserves the right to enter a room/unit without notice for maintenance, repairs, cleaning and/or inspection.

6.4. Disclaimer of liability

The University assumes no responsibility and is not liable for any loss or damage to your personal property or injury to your person.

7. Early Termination of this Agreement

7.1. Early withdrawal by Student

If you wish to vacate your Residence before the end of the Winter session, you must submit a request in accordance with the Early Withdrawal from Residence Procedures available at: <https://brocku.ca/housing/moving-out/early-withdrawal/> and fees paid will be forfeited in accordance with those procedures.

7.2. Early termination by University

The University may terminate this Agreement if you breach this Agreement or any terms incorporated by reference into this Agreement, such as the Residence Community Standards, effective immediately upon written notice to you or as specified in the written notice. If the University terminates this Agreement for breach, you must still pay all residence and meal plan fees for the full 2026-27 academic year.

7.3. Appeal against early termination by University

You may appeal an early termination decision by the University if you have documentary evidence which establishes that your breach of this Agreement was due to compassionate or medical reasons. The University may uphold or rescind the termination in its absolute discretion.

8. General Provisions

8.1. No liability for emergencies

The University shall not be liable for any delays or failure to provide the residential accommodation which is provided for in this Agreement when such failure is caused by fire, explosion, water, Acts of God, civil disobedience or disturbances, strikes or other labour interruptions, vandalism, war, riot, sabotage, failure of public utility services, governmental rules, pandemic or public health measures, or any other causes which are beyond the reasonable control of the University ("Emergency" or "Emergencies"). If the Residences cannot open, are restricted in their capacity to accommodate residents and/or must close for any such Emergency, the University will use reasonable efforts to ensure that residents are notified in advance and the University will use reasonable efforts to mitigate against the effects of the Emergency. The University is not liable for any loss arising from the delay, failure, or interruption of residential accommodation or services and there shall be no compensation in any form whatsoever for inconvenience or discomfort suffered as a result of Emergencies or other circumstances which are beyond the control of the University.

8.2. Other unforeseen circumstances

In the event that the residences cannot open and/or must close due to the actions of third parties with respect to planned or unforeseen renovation or construction, which are beyond the control of the University but not an Emergency, the University shall use its best efforts to notify the students in advance and provide substitute accommodation on- or off-campus.

8.3. Changes to rules

The University reserves the right to amend or make additional rules and regulations concerning the Residences, which shall form part of this agreement, and you agree to be bound by such amendments or additions.

8.4. Waiver

Waiver of these procedures by the University in certain circumstances shall not be deemed to be a waiver of these procedures generally.

8.5. Notice

Any notice the University is required to provide to you under this Agreement shall be deemed to have been properly delivered if delivered to your mailbox, University email or posted on the door to your Room. Any notice required to be given to the University should be delivered to the North, East, or South Service Desk, or sent by email to housing@brocku.ca and made attention to Management, Housing Services.

8.6. Indemnity

You shall indemnify and hold harmless the University from all claims, liabilities, costs, expenses, damages, and legal expenses arising out of or in any way connected with your use or occupation of your room, shared areas, or common areas, or any other part or parts of the Residence.

8.7. Resident Property Replacement Program

All students residing in Brock University residences will be enrolled in the Resident Property Replacement Program ("RPR Program"). Enrollment and participation in the RPR Program is mandatory and a condition of residency. The fee for the RPR Program is included in your residence fees. Subject to the terms of the RPR Program, you may be eligible for reimbursement for personal property lost or damaged as a result of incidents such as fire, theft, or certain types of water damage. Participation in the RPR program does not constitute insurance and does not replace or provide the same coverage as personal property insurance.

8.8. Insurance

The University assumes no liability, directly or indirectly, for loss or theft of personal property, including food, or for damage or destruction of such property by fire, water, or other causes (e.g., loss of utilities).

8.9. Assignment

This Agreement cannot be assigned without the prior written consent of the University.

8.10. Severability

In the event that any portion of this Agreement is found to be unenforceable, that provision shall be deemed deleted from this Agreement and the remainder of the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect.

8.11. Entire Contract

You agree that this Agreement includes the Residence Community Standards and any other policy, procedure or document incorporated by reference or by link into this agreement. This Agreement supersedes and takes the place of any and all previous contracts and representations of any kind, written or verbal, made previously. To the extent that there is any discrepancy between matters dealing both in this contract and any other University publication or agreement, the provisions of this contract shall prevail.

8.12. Time is of the Essence:

You must deal with your obligations as a resident or in a situation in accordance with any assigned deadlines, particularly situations which affect your academic performance or standing in residence. Unresolved problems get worse and, in some cases, additional penalties, late fees or other remedies may result from the delay.

8.13. Residents Under the Age of 18:

If you are under the age of 18 years, this Agreement must be signed by your parent or legal guardian in order to be binding on Brock University. The undersigned parent or guardian of the resident hereby acknowledges full responsibility and liability for all covenants and obligations of the resident as provided for in this Contract including, but not limited to, payment of all Residence Fees.

8.14. Application of the Residential Tenancies Act

You acknowledge your accommodation in the Residence is not governed by or subject to the provisions of the Residential Tenancies Act, 2006, S.O. 2006, c. 17

8.15. Online electronic acceptance of contract

Submitting an online acceptance through the residence application website, officially indicates that you understand and agree to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
