

Call to Action: Join the BUSU Gender & Sexual Violence Advisory Committee!

Are you passionate about creating a safer, more inclusive campus? Do you want to be part of the change in how sexual violence is addressed at Brock University? The BUSU Gender & Sexual Violence Advisory Committee is looking for dedicated students like you to make an impact.

Why Join?

- Advocate for Change: Play a crucial role in reviewing and improving Brock University's sexual violence policies and programming.
- Make Your Voice Heard: As a student-led committee, your insights will directly influence decisions that affect our campus community.
- Intersectional Approach: Work alongside peers and key stakeholders to ensure that diverse perspectives are included in our efforts to combat gender and sexual violence.
- Leadership Opportunity: Develop your leadership skills by serving on a committee that makes tangible changes in university policy and culture.

What You'll Do:

- Participate in four closed-session meetings per academic year.
- Collaborate with the Gender & Sexual Violence Support and Education Office to review activities and outcomes.
- Provide feedback on existing programs and recommend new strategies for prevention and support.
- Help create an annual report on Brock University's sexual harassment policy and related work.

Who Should Apply?

- Current Brock students with a passion for advocacy and social justice.
- Students who want to contribute to a safer campus environment for all.
- Individuals interested in learning more about intersectionality and sexual violence prevention.

How to Apply: To apply please email a copy of your resume and a paragraph about why you think you would be a good fit for the committee (500 words or less) to svsec@brocku.ca. Applications open every September. Don't miss your chance to be part of this vital work. Apply now and help shape the future of Brock University's approach to gender and sexual violence. Applications are Due by Monday, October 7th
