

Sexual Violence Support and Education Student Advisory Committee

Volunteer Opportunity

Gender and Sexual Violence and Education (GSV) at Brock University seeks individuals to join our GSV-BUSU student advisement committee. You will be a member of a group of undergraduate and graduate students convened to provide feedback on GSV initiatives funded through a BUSU referendum. This Committee is key to the work being done to support and educate the campus community about sexual violence.

The successful candidates will have an interest in this field demonstrated through voluntary, activist or advocacy activities. Previous employment experience is appreciated but not required.

The committee members are appointment for one-year term. Terms will run November through April. This committee will meet 3 times per academic year, for approximately 2 hours per meeting. The committee will review GSV initiatives underwritten with BUSU funds, advise on future programming and review Ontario Women's Safety Grant proposals. The meetings will take place online through MS Teams. Our office is situated in the St. Catharines campus of Brock University.

The successful candidates will receive a complete orientation including role expectations, understanding SVSE in the context of Human Rights and Equity as well as necessary information about reporting requirements and how they relate to Brock University. The team members will work closely with the Sexual Violence Support and Education Coordinator and BUSU Executive member working with the committee.

Group members will be challenged to consider the various areas of programming in relation to the broader context of Human Rights and Equity. The applicant's area of academic concentration is not a factor in these appointments. Preference for individuals with lived experience as members of racialized, 2SLGBTQIA+, disabled, or other marginalized communities, as well as recent, or current, experience as a student within a post-secondary institution. Commitment to ending sexual violence as demonstrated through previous or current activist or voluntary work is strongly desired.

To be eligible,

- The applicant's area of academic concentration is not a factor in appointments to this Committee
- Commitment to ending sexual violence is strongly desired
- Candidates must be a current Brock University student, in good standing, paying BUSU fees.

If interested in applying, please send your resume and cover letter to ebagshaw@brocku.ca no later than December 9th, 2022, by 5pm. In your cover letter, please indicate the position title. Anticipated start date for the first meeting is early January 2023.
