

25th

Annual Two Days of Canada Conference
Brock University, Nov. 3–4, 2011

Canadian Studies, Canadian Stories: Interdisciplinary Perspectives and Pedagogies

A gathering of scholars and students celebrating our 25th anniversary will explore the past, present and future of Canadian perspectives and Canadian scholarship within and beyond Canadian Studies.

Conference presentations |
Pond Inlet | Thursday, Nov. 3,
9 a.m. to 5 p.m. | Friday, Nov. 4,
9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Sponsored by the Faculty of Social Sciences,
Humanities Research Institute,
Centre for Canadian Studies,
Department of Communication,
Popular Culture & Film, Department of English
Language and Literature, and Department of History.

Keynote presentation
"Stories About Storytellers"
by Douglas Gibson
Pond Inlet, Thursday,
Nov. 3, 7 to 9 p.m.

Douglas Gibson, a former editor and publisher at McClelland & Stewart, recounts his interactions with many well-known Canadian authors and public figures whose writing he published.

For more information:
brocku.ca/2dc