

Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies
Speaker Series presents

Brock
University

Indigenous, Mestizo, & African-descended Petitioners in 16th-Century Habsburg Madrid

This talk aims to think of Habsburg Madrid as a multiethnic city, connected to the port city of Seville and to transatlantic networks, drawing non-European travelers and longer-term residents from Spain's transoceanic dominions.

Felipe Ruan is Associate Professor in the Centre for Medieval and Renaissance Studies.

October 29, 2024
2:00-3:30 p.m.
Cairns 207

Light refreshments served | All Welcome

