Consider joining BUMARS

Brock University's Society for Medieval and Renaissance Studies is a club dedicated to the study of the Middle Ages and Renaissance. The club offers a creative and fun environment for students to learn about these rich and influential periods. No knowledge or experience in studying the Middle Ages or Renaissance is needed, the club is designed for anyone with an interest in these two remarkable time periods.

If you enjoy good conversation, good people, and an overall good time this is the club for you.
