

ITALIAN STUDIES COURSES – SPRING 2021-22

Italian Studies Coordinator: Dr. Carmela Colella (ccolella@brocku.ca)

Course Code	Course Description	Instructor Contact Information	Scheduling Details
DURATION 1 (2021/05/03 to 2021/07/09)
ITAL 1F00	Introductory Italian: Beginner's course for students with no formal knowledge of Standard Italian. Acquisition of reading and oral skills, basic grammar, conversation and composition.	J. Granata jgranata@brocku.ca	Mon & Weds 1800-2200 SYN
DURATION 2 (2021/05/03 to 2021/06/04)
ITAL 1P96/2P96	Italian Culture and Civilization/ Italian Culture and Society: Artistic heritage of Italy and the intellectual, political and social forces that have shaped the mentality and way of life of the Italians. Overview of the intellectual, political and social forces that have shaped modern-day Italy. Focus on historical periods and how these are reflected in art, literature, architecture and society.	E. Caselli	Mon & Weds 1800-2200 SYN
ITAL 2Q90	Digital Archives: Construction, Scholarship and Functionality: Digital archives, their functionality, development and role in Humanities research. Sites studied will range from library collections to single authors and artist projects, including museum and audio archives. Engagement in the creation of a digital archive.	Prof. C. Colella ccolella@brocku.ca	Mon & Weds 1000-1400 SYN Tues & Thurs 1000-1100 LAB