

POWER TO THE WORD— “VIVO PER QUESTO”

ROUNDTABLE DISCUSSION WITH
(DISCUSSION WILL TAKE PLACE IN ENGLISH)

AFRO-ITALIAN RAPPER
AMIR ISSAA

Born in Rome to an Italian mother and an Egyptian father, Amir Issaa felt separated from his fellow citizens and what the “typical Italian” should look like. “When I look at my skin in the mirror, I see the heritage of both my mother and my father,” Issaa said. “I always felt Italian, but society did not always accept this.” A social activist, his mission is to spread the word about the new Italy, one with diversity, inclusive immigration, and a fresh idea of what real Italians look like. Embracing his passion for both music and activism, Issaa is able to reach countless people who struggle in the midst of racism.
