

October 23, 2019
Pond Inlet 12:30–2:00pm

---

Diaspora Social and Institutional Capital: Bridging the Divide

Dr. Gervan Fearon

President and Vice-Chancellor, Brock University

To consider diasporic populations, it is important first to acknowledge and recognize the Indigenous Peoples of Canada and their traditional territories. In that context Dr. Fearon will examine diasporic populations and differential social - institutional capital within the Canadian setting and the potential role of universities in institutional capacity building.

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE: Irene M.F. Blayer, Lissa Paul, Cristina Santos and Dawn Zinga
Faculty of Humanities, Faculty of Education, Faculty of Social Sciences

Lunch Provided

RSVP

iblayer@brocku.ca / lpaul@brocku.ca