SPAN 1F00—Introductory Spanish Language

Offered Online: T/R 16:00-19:00

SPAN1F00 is a first-year course designed for students who are ‘true beginners’ of the Spanish language. This course focuses on acquisition of the Spanish language, and the development of communicative competence. Students in the course gain practical insights into the customs and cultural contexts of the contemporary Spanish-speaking world. Spanish is the fourth most spoken language in the world, and fluency in Spanish is a valuable asset in any career. and film.

For further information contact: Instructor, Dr. Dominique Russell (drussell@brocku.ca)

Modern Languages Literatures and Cultures