

Something phishy in your email?

Phishing scams send fraudulent emails that require the recipient to click a link to a counterfeit website.

The objective is to trick the recipient into volunteering private information.

That information is used to commit identity theft.

VERIFY before you trust.

THINK before you click.

THINK