

University of Campinas (UNICAMP)

Location: São Paula, Brazil

Profile

The University of Campinas is located in the state of São Paula in Brazil. This university was founded in 1966 and has a population of over 35,500 students. This relatively new university has lots to offer you! With three different campuses, and 22 different teaching and research centers you will be sure to find your best fit. This university is always striving to promote the development of physical, cultural and social well-being, foster and guarantee democratic values and equal rights (learn more about UNICAMP here).

Courses

Undergraduate areas of study include:

Arts • Biology • Chemistry • Economics • Languages • Mathematics

Plus many more!! To view the departments and other offered courses click here.

Language of Instruction

English

Dates

March-December

Important dates

Currency

Brazilian Real

Accommodations

It is possible for students to rent apartments, or rent rooms ranging from $200-$800 per month.

Important Links

Main Website | Exchange Website