Declaration of Partial Copyright Licence

The author, whose copyright is declared on the title page of this work, has granted to Brock University the right to lend this thesis to users of the Brock University Library, and to make partial or single copies only for such users or in response to a request from the library of any other university, or other educational institution, on its own behalf or for one of its users.

The author has further granted permission to Brock University to keep or make a digital copy for use in its circulating collection (available to the public at the “Digital Repository” link of the Brock University Library website at: www.library.brocku.ca) and, without changing the content, to translate the thesis if technically possible to any medium or format for the purpose of preservation of the digital work.

The author has further agreed that permission for multiple copying of this work for scholarly purposes may be granted by either the author or the Dean of Graduate Studies.

It is understood that copying or publication of this work for financial gain shall not be allowed without the author’s written permission.

Permission for public performance or limited permission for private scholarly use, of any multimedia materials forming part of this work may have been granted by the author. This information may be found on the separately catalogued multimedia material and in the signed Partial Copyright Licence.

While licensing Brock University to permit the above uses, the author retains copyright in the thesis, project or extended essays, including the right to change the work for subsequent purposes, including editing and publishing the work in whole or in part, and licensing other parties, as the author may desire.

The original Partial Copyright Licence attesting to these terms, and signed by this author, may be found in the original bound copy of this work, retained in the Brock University Archive. Once all theses are ‘born digital’, we will not be keeping a bound copy of the work in the Library. Thus other arrangements for the maintenance of the signed agreements will need to be made.
