Dear [Recipient Name]:

Request to reproduce material in a [thesis/major research paper]

I am a graduate student at Brock University [in X program – e.g. completing my PhD in Psychology] and am preparing my final [thesis/major research paper]. I would like your permission to include in my [thesis/major research paper] [an excerpt/excerpts] from your [publication/publications], as further described below.

I will include an acknowledgment of the author and the source of the [excerpt/excerpts] and would be happy to include specific wording, if you have a preferred form of acknowledgment.

The [thesis/major research paper] will be digitized and available online through the Brock University Library, Library and Archives Canada and other third party theses databases. For your reference, the non-exclusive, royalty-free licences I will grant to Brock University and Library and Archives Canada for this purposes are available here:

Brock University: http://www.brocku.ca/webfm_send/1470

Library and Archives Canada: <http://www.collectionscanada.gc.ca/thesescanada/027007-3000-e.html>

[Optional: Explain why use of the material is necessary for your thesis/MRP – this may not make much difference with larger publishers, but may help your case with a smaller publisher or an individual copyright owner].

If you agree to this use, please confirm your agreement by completing and returning the acknowledgment included below, to the address on the first page of this letter.

If you do not hold the copyright for this material, or the right to grant this type of permission, I would greatly appreciate any information you can provide to me regarding the rights holder(s), including any contact information.

Thank you for considering this request and for supporting my research.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
