

The Department of Dramatic Arts presents:

2020-21 BIPOC Speaker Series
Conversations in which Black, Indigenous,
and people of colour theatre leaders
address issues of interest to the theatre community, and beyond.

Marilyn I. Walker
School of Fine &
Performing Arts

TUESDAY, JAN. 12, 2021
7 TO 8:30 P.M.
VIA ZOOM

SIGN UP HERE

CONSCIOUSNESS IN COLOUR: INTERCULTURAL SCENE STUDY FOR CONTEMPORARY CLASSROOMS WITH TANISHA TAITT

Tanisha Taitt is Artistic Director of Cahoots Theatre and a director/actor/playwright, musical artist, accidental essayist, and audiobook director with Penguin Random House Canada. In this talk she will focus on her work as a theatre and anti-racism educator.

Supported by the Centre for Pedagogical Innovation at Brock University in partnership with Niagara Community Foundations

brocku.ca/dramatic-arts

