

Medea Field Trip Package

MEDEA

An ancient Greek tragedy crashes against the shores of modern life and lingers in televised ruins.

Curriculum ties to English, Drama, Classics, Media and Civic Studies.

For a media presentation and study guide visit: www.brocku.ca/dramatic_arts/events0809.html

Workshops and talk-backs for students are also available. Contact: nalvarez@brocku.ca

Tickets: Adults $15, Seniors/Students $12, School Groups $10

For tickets contact the Center for the Arts Box Office

Box Office: 905-688-5550, ext. 3257 email: boxoffice@brocku.ca

A riveting retelling of Euripides' Medea set in a multi-media talk-show environment, with a musical guest appearance, live cameras, and haunting visual effects.

Themes: Betrayal and revenge; citizenship and refugees; the private, the public and the media; violence; tragedy.

Subject areas: English Literature, Drama, Classics, Civic Studies, and Media Studies.

Age Appropriateness: Recommended for ages 14+

BACKSTAGE WORKSHOP, PERFORMANCE, and TALK-BACK PACKAGE:

Student groups can book a Medea field-trip package that begins with a pre-show workshop led by members of the Medea creative team, faculty, and students of the Department of Dramatic Art's Drama in Education and Society Stream. Through a series of creative and interactive workshop exercises, students will arrive at a deeper understanding of key issues and themes raised in the production, as they relate to the students' own experiences and current issues. After lunch, students will attend the production, followed by a talk-back discussion with the director and members of the creative team.

For more information or to book, contact Marie Balsom at: mbalsom@brocku.ca. At time of booking, please indicate the subject area and grade level of the students participating in the field trip package.

For a Medea teaching module with discussion questions and exercises high school teachers may use in preparation for their field trip visit: www.brocku.ca/dramatic_arts/events0809.html

Field Trip Package Schedule
Friday, November 14, 2008:

9:00-10:45: Workshop
10:45-11:30: Lunch Break
11:30-1:15pm: Performance
1:25-2:00pm: Talk-back

Student Ticket Group Rate: $10

eyeGO.org

