

Marilyn I. Walker
School of Fine &
Performing Arts

CAREERS following your degree in Dramatic Arts...

Brock University
Faculty of Humanities

DART graduates have achieved an impressive array of positions as:

Actors (theatre, film and TV)

Agents (acting, band, company, impresario)

Applied Theatre Practitioners

Arts Administrators (theatre, gallery, arts centre, commercial tour)

Artistic Directors (theatre, magazine)

College Student Guidance Officers

Comedians-- Stand Up and Sketch (live and TV)

Community Facilitators

Costume Designers

Directors (theatre, film, documentary film)

Doctor Clowns

Dramaturges/Script Doctors

Event Planners and Managers

Literary Managers

Managers of Personnel and Human Resources

Marketing Designers and Publicists

Rock and Roll Artists

Producers (theatre, TV)

Theatre Technicians

Script writers (theatre, TV, film)

Sound Recording Engineers

Camera Operator (film, TV)

Stage Manager

Theatre Teachers (community, private schools)

Wardrobe Managers

DART provides an excellent foundation for further studies, whether for Teaching Certificates, at Acting Conservatories, or University Graduate Studies at the Masters or Doctoral level. Our graduates are:

Teachers of

Drama in Public Elementary & High Schools

Drama in Private High Schools

Theatre /Education at Universities

Theatre at Colleges

Drama Therapists

Voice and Speech Therapists

Lawyers

Architectural Technicians

Video Game Creators

Conflict Negotiators

Standardized Patient Trainers

Corporate Leadership Trainers