Tim White - Performing throughout southern Ontario as a soloist, freelance trumpeter, and clinician, Tim has played in the Hamilton Philharmonic Orchestra, Symphony Nova Scotia, and the Niagara Symphony. Performances with his quintet, Rondeau Brass, include McMaster University, Brock University and St. Mark's Anglican Church, Niagara-on-the-Lake. Tim can be heard on Canadian songwriter Joseph Boudreau's solo album 'Yesterday's Today'. A native of Hamilton, Ontario, Tim earned a Master of Music degree from the University of Michigan where he studied trumpet with Ramon Parcells of the Detroit Symphony and Armando Ghitalla of the Boston Symphony.

Lesley Kingham graduated with a Masters in Pipe Organ Performance and Literature from the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Indiana in 1996, studying under Dr. Craig Cramer. Throughout the program she served as the liturgical assistant at the Basilica of the Sacred Heart. She received her Bachelor of Music from the University of Western Ontario in 1994, at which time she was awarded the gold medal for pipe organ performance. During her studies Ms. Kingham was the assistant organist at St James Westminster Anglican Church and the accompanist for the Amabile Boys' Choirs.

From 1996 to 2011 she was the staff accompanist and keyboard harmony instructor at Brock University. She is currently the organ instructor at Brock in addition to being the accompanist for the ensemble-in-residence, the Avanti Chamber Singers. Lesley is the organist and music director at St Thomas' Anglican Church in St Catharines and operates a private teaching studio.
