Submission Guidelines and Regulations:

Each secondary school in the Niagara Region will be permitted to submit up to 20 drawing submissions. Each school will run their own selection process to determine which drawings will be submitted.

A faculty lead from each secondary school will:

- act as the main point of contact;
- coordinate student submissions;
- submit digital images of the entries on behalf of the students; and
- will be responsible for organizing the delivery and pick-up of selected work.

All forms of drawing created by grade 11 and 12 students are welcome, including but not limited to: sketchbook pages, works on paper, digital drawing, non-traditional and expanded forms of drawing.

All submissions must be original (not reproduced without alteration from another artist's work); submissions may include work produced in or outside of school; work must have been produced within the past two years.

If selected, artwork must be available to be shown for the exhibition dates listed and must be in good condition. Framing the work is not required.

To Submit:

The faculty lead will compile a document containing all the digital images and information for the submission. PowerPoint, Word, or similar should be used to build a single document with all the submissions included. Each digital image should be given its own slide/page and should contain the following information alongside the image:

Student Name (First & Last)

Title of the work, year it was produced

Materials used

Size in cm (W x H)

School Name, Grade 11 or 12

A submission slide/page should look something like this:

Please do not lock the contents of the document by sending a PDF, as we will need to be able to cut and paste the information to create wall labels.

Submissions can be sent to: Amanda Burk, aburk@brocku.ca with the subject line, Drawn 2025

Submission Deadline: March 15, 2025

Please Note: By submitting work to Drawn 2025, the students and the secondary schools submitting work acknowledge and consent to having the work reproduced for the purpose of documenting and promoting the exhibition. By submitting artwork, the student and the school agree to these conditions.
