

Image credit: Camille Turner, Afronautic Research Lab, (ongoing since 2016). Social practice / installation. Photo by Garrett Elliott for Agnes Etherington Gallery (documentation of Arts Against Post Racialism, a SSHRC funded knowledge mobilization project led by Phillip Howard in collaboration with Camille Turner)

Presented by the Department of Visual Arts and Walker Cultural Leader Series

Camille Turner

Walker Cultural Leader Events

Camille Turner is an artist/scholar whose work combines Afrofuturism and historical research.

Exhibition: Afronautic Research Lab,
Oct. 1 – 26, 2024, Visual Arts Gallery
Artist Talk: Thursday Oct. 3, 2024,
4:30 – 6 p.m., MWS 251 (Studio C)
Reception: Thursday Oct. 3, 2024,
6 – 8 p.m., Visual Arts Gallery

Workshop: Afronautic Research Methodology Workshop, Saturday Oct. 5, 2024, 1 – 2:30 p.m., Visual Arts Gallery

Register for workshop here

Marilyn I. Walker School of Fine and Performing Arts brocku.ca/visual-arts