It's 1938 and in the fractured world left behind by the Great Depression, the Spanish Civil War seizes the hopes and fears of the world as people unite and divide over the threat of Fascism. In Canada it is declared a crime to volunteer to fight in Spain, yet 1,546 Canadians make the illegal journey to fight for Democracy in the hopes of creating a better world. This production follows the journeys of 18 Canadians and Spaniards as they pursue their beliefs in the possibilities of a new life.
