Beethoven Lives Upstairs

Sunday, April 12 at 2:30 pm

A partnership between the Niagara Symphony (NSO) and the Department of Dramatic Arts, presenting the story of young Christoph, who develops a unique relationship with his family's very unusual upstairs tenant: Ludwig von Beethoven. Elizabeth Pereira and Evan Mulrooney, under the direction of DART professor Virginia Reh, will join conductor Bradley Thachuk and the musicians of the NSO for this delightful tale of eccentric genius.

Location: Sean O'Sullivan Theatre, Brock Campus

Tickets: $28.00 adults; $12.00 children (+HST). Available from the Centre for the Arts Box Office, 905.688.5550 x3257 or visit: Arts.BrockU.ca

Awkward and Uncomfortable (DART 4F56)

April 16, 17 & 18 at 7:30 pm

Three interlocking stories explore how to survive the turbulence that washes over us when we question fundamental aspects of our identities. Is it better to find the answers to our secrets or to leave them locked away? And where is that elusive happy ending?

Location: Room ST107 (Studio Theatre), Schmon Tower, Brock Campus

Admission: Donations accepted

Janet Werner

Werner is an acclaimed Canadian painter and Concordia University professor with an international reputation. As part of her visit to Brock University she will be selecting works by senior Visual Arts students to be featured in the upcoming exhibition "From likeness to fiction: the portrait inside out." Werner will also give a public presentation entitled "Painting the Imaginary Portrait."

"In Werner's current practice [...] an argument erupts between beauty and the grotesque and the figure itself becomes the site of contest."
~ Parisian Laundry, 2012
