

Chancellor's Chair in Teaching Excellence

Student perceptions of their degree level learning

Tanya Martini
Psychology

The project examines student perceptions of their degree-level learning, particularly in relation to the skill-based learning outcomes documented in the Ontario degree-level expectations (DLEs). The program of work will evaluate a series of workshop exercises for undergraduates that are designed to assist them in assessing their own skill development in the areas of problem solving and teamwork, and better communicating these skills to others (including potential employers).