

REB Guideline: Research Participation of Individuals Under Age 18

Current Status: Approved and Posted

Date introduced: May 2005

Last reviewed: March 2017

1. Consent from a parent or guardian is not required for research participation of Brock University students under the age of 18.
2. Requests for waivers of parental consent for minors not attending the University will be considered on a case-to-case basis.