

RSF Research Security Outcomes Report 2022-2023

Notional amount for 2022-2023: $53,843

Project title	Output	Performance objective	Performance indicator	Target outcome	Reported Outcomes
External Security Consultant Services to Enhance Brock’s Security Posture and Awareness	$45,000 invested in completion of research security and risk assessments.	Assist in coordinating research security across the institution.	Aid in identifying and mitigating research security risks.	Development of report with recommendations for enhanced security and risk-mitigation strategies.	Brock has engaged with external security experts and the Research Security Centre, participated in a network of Canadian post-secondary institutions, and made presentations to various high-level stakeholders.
	$3,750 committed to assessment of high-risk applications.	Provide ad-hoc support to review high-risk funding applications in tandem with research office staff.	Identify and suggest mitigation strategies for security risks.	Build capacity for Brock’s research office staff to perform reviews in the future.	All research office staff whose portfolios are directly impacted have received training in this regard, including Director, Manager, Legal Counsel, and Research Officers.
	$3,000 committed to provide research security training for the research office staff.	Increase participation and awareness about research security initiatives.	Development of a training module on research security.	At least 90% of research office staff receiving research security training.
Risk Mitigation by Research Enterprise Staff and Administrator	$2,093 committed to developing a biosecurity plan for Brock’s CL3 lab.	Review risks associated with operating a CL3 lab.	Development of a comprehensive plan for mitigating risks arising from the CL3 lab.	Submit a risk mitigation plan for review by the Public Health Agency of Canada.	