Written Portion:

Student has successfully completed their written portion by producing a reflective and theoretically grounded report incorporating their experiences and the feedback of their committee and organization members.

Student's written portion addresses some of the requirements of the comprehensive exam but omit one or more of the following

Reflection on the experience

Theoretical grounding in the literature

Review and response to feedback

Notes:

Oral Component:

Student has presented their work at the community organization and responded to the questions of the committee satisfactorily

Complete:

Incomplete:

Completion of the Comprehensive exam::

Comp satisfactory and accepted as complete. All three committee members have passed the student on both the written and oral components. Requires no further revision.

Comp requires revisions- This will normally involve adding information or literature and rewriting sections of the written reflection. Written material will be resubmitted to the committee but student is not required to redo their oral exam.

Comp is unsatisfactory to one or more Committee members and must be re-done. Student will be asked to choose from one of the other three exam formats but will not be permitted to retake the community placement exam.
