

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Position: Open Gym (Toronto Raptors), Intern
Reports to: Supervising Producer, Basketball Content
Duration: January – April 2019

Position Overview:

Maple Leafs Sports & Entertainment is looking to find a talented self-starter to intern in its in-house documentary programming department. Working alongside the producers and director of one of its shows, the intern will log incoming footage, work with team archives, participate in story meetings and assemble rough sequences for the editors. Applicants should have an interest in both sports and documentary and be comfortable with Adobe Creative Suite.

Specific Duties:

- Logging and sorting in-coming footage
- Assembling edit sequences
- Participation in story meetings
- Occasional Production Assistant Opportunities
- Research and archiving footage retrieval

Requirements:

- Currently enrolled in Degree/Diploma program in Film, Journalism or Media Studies, with internship as a course requirement
- Excellent knowledge of basketball
- Proven ability to work well with deadlines and within a team environment
- Ability to multi-task and creatively problem solve
- Interest in learning more about editing and digital storytelling

Additional Information: Please note that this is a full-time (5 days/week) unpaid position; however the student hired for this position will receive a $150.00 weekly honorarium.

Instructions to Apply:

- Interested applicants are asked to e-mail their resumes and a cover letter to internship@mlse.com no later than November 15, 2018 by 5:00pm.
- Please include the internship position in the subject heading.
- Please limit your application to one internship which is relevant to your program. If passionate about more than one opportunity, please indicate secondary interests in your cover letter.

We thank everyone for their interest; only those selected for an interview will be contacted.