

An aerial photograph of a lush green forest. In the lower center, a dam structure is visible, creating a reservoir. The water in the reservoir is a light, milky green color. The surrounding forest is dense and vibrant green, with some fallen trees scattered throughout. The overall scene is a natural, wooded landscape.

The Sustainability Science & Society
(SSAS) program presents:

*“Ideology
and Water Politics in Southern Alberta”*

featuring

Dr. Tim Heinmiller
Prof Political Science and ESRC member

Date: Thursday,
October 2nd
Time: 2:00 pm
Where: Plaza 408