

Unpacking the 2019 federal election: What happened, why, and the future

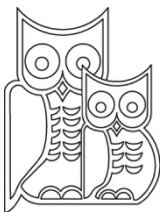

Wednesday, October 23, 2019 –
7:00 pm
St. Catharines Public Library – Mills
Room
54 Church Street

Seating limited.

Please RSVP in person at the Library, by phone (905-688-6103, x.211) or online via Eventbrite at:
<https://bit.ly/2mUBbuJ>

A panel discussion with experts from Brock University on the outcome of the federal election and its implications for the Niagara region and the country.

Tamari Kitossa, Associate Professor, Sociology
David Siegel, Professor Emeritus, Political Science
Livianna Tossutti, Associate Professor, Political Science

Co-sponsored by the Brock University Department of Political Science and the St. Catharines Public Library

For more information: political.science@brocku.ca