Quebec votes: Quebec politics in 2014 and beyond

Wednesday, April 9th, 2014 @ 12:00 p.m. in Plaza 410

Pre-election polls project a Parti Québécois (PQ) majority in the National Assembly. No matter what the result, the 2014 provincial campaign has stirred debate about controversial issues like corruption, sovereignty and the Charter of Values. The Department of Political Science invites you to participate in a post-election conversation about Quebec politics in 2014 and beyond. Join a panel of contributors in this open and frank discussion about this pertinent election.
