

Indigenous De/Criminalization Symposium Schedule
 Wednesday, March 20th – Pond Inlet

Eventbrite link:

<https://www.eventbrite.ca/e/indigenous-decriminalization-symposium-tickets-860959732737?aff=oddtcreator>

Time	Guest/Speaker/Artist/Performer
10 – 10:10 am	Welcome: Dr. Robyn Bourgeois , Vice Provost Indigenous Engagement. Lyn Trudeau & Willow Shawanoo-Kechego , Co-Chairs Decolonization Working Group
10:10 – 10:45 am	Shawana Dodem Drum Opening Opening Elder Dave Labbe (Innu)
10:45 – 11:45 am	Keynote: Beverly Jacobs Mohawk Nation of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy, Bear Clan. Senior Advisor to the President on Indigenous Relations and Outreach at the University of Windsor. She practices law part-time at her home community of Six Nations of the Grand River Territory. Her research focuses on Indigenous Legal Orders, Indigenous Wholistic Health, Indigenous Research Methodologies, and Decolonization of Eurocentric Law.
11:45 – 12:15 pm	Edna Campos – Gladue Report and Indigenous Justice. Works within the courts.
12:15 – 12:30 pm	Performance Male Dancer Joe Shawana
12:30 pm – 1 pm	Lunch Provided
	Strong Water Singers performance to welcome in the afternoon.
1 pm – 1:30 pm	Megan Scribes – Ininiw iskwew, Norway House Cree Nation. Interdisciplinary Indigenous feminist researcher, writer, and educator with a focus on structural powers of oppression and anti-racism.
1:30 – 2 pm	Seán Kinsella - (ê-akimiht nêhi(y/th)aw/otipemisiwak/Nakawé/Irish) is migizi dodem (Bald Eagle Clan) and two-spirit/queer/aayahkwêw. Speaker, storyteller, and poet. Anti-racism work.
2 pm - 2:15 pm	Performance Male Dancer Lucas Shawana

2:15pm – 3:15 pm	Layla Staats – Mohawk, Turtle Clan, Six Nations. Indigenous Film Maker, Speaker, and Activist. Personal experience while protesting.
3:15 pm – 3:30 pm	Jessica Riel – Anishinaabe. Indigenous community justice support.
3:30 pm – 3:45 pm Closing	Ending the Circle/Performers