

October 26, 2022

10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

10 - 10:15

Welcome and opening remarks

Land acknowledgment:

Tamara El-Hoss, Interim Director, Social Justice Research Institute

Welcome to Symposium Series:

Ingrid Makus, Dean, Faculty of Social Sciences

Introduction to event:

Tamara El-Hoss, Interim Director, Social Justice Research Institute

10:15 - 11:00

Presentations

10:15 – 10:30

Contradictory mobility: child self-protection and automobiles in interwar Toronto's Globe

Phillip Gordon Mackintosh (Geography and Tourism Studies)

10:30 – 10:45

Road Infrastructure, Mobility and Gendered Subjectivities in Shimshal, Pakistan

Nancy Cook (Sociology) and David Butz (Geography and Tourism Studies)

10:45 – 11:00

Education is my only carriage - It was not an easy road

Denese Brown-Bell (Faculty of Education)

11:00 - 11:15

Q&A and discussion

Moderator:

Tamara El-Hoss, Interim Director, Social Justice Research Institute

11:15 - 11:25

BREAK

11:25 - 12:25

Presentations

11:25 – 11:40

Reflections on Mobility and the 2021 Photos of the Mounted US Border Patrol

Gale Coskan-Johnson (English Language and Literature)

11:40 – 11:55

Developing decolonial aesthetics with migrant domestic worker creative communities

Julie Ham (Sociology)

11:55 – 12:10

Displacement and Belonging in Canada: Building Reconciliation Through Research, Knowledge Translation, and the Arts

Snežana Obradović-Ratković (Faculty of Education) et al

12:10 - 12:25

Q&A and discussion

Moderator:

Tamara El-Hoss, Interim Director, Social Justice Research Institute

12:25- 12:30

Closing remarks

Closing remarks, thanks:

Tamara El-Hoss, Interim Director, Social Justice Research Institute