

Faith Ambassadors Faith and Life Centre Lead Volunteers

A Faith Ambassador is a volunteer student role with Faith and Life that works with Brock University students from all religious, spiritual, and secular identities to grow the Faith and Life community, connect students with needed resources and information, and to share the vision of Faith and Life with the broader University community.

Ambassadors will represent the Faith & Life Centre (FLC) at events, providing opportunities for students to learn about different cultures and religions, and acting as hosts for new students who visit our centre.

Expectations

- Respect for and strong interest in diversity in its broadest sense, including gender identity, sexual orientation, ethnicity, race, faith, age, and ability.
- A strong desire to build bridges to local places of spiritual, religious, and secular support with the broader Brock community.
- An ability to communicate clearly and give tours and explanations of the Faith and Life space, various religiously oriented BUSU clubs, and worshipping opportunities within the FLC.
 - Including but not limited to: Jummah, Mass, and Thursday Worship.
- A vision for planning and hosting events seeking to broaden religious awareness, inclusivity, and equity on campus.

Required Skills

- Communication Skills: Gain public speaking, presentation and group facilitation skills
- Teamwork Skills: Develop skills in understanding group dynamics, engaging in dialogue with others who approach learning, work, and world issues differently, and event/project management
- Personal Management Skills: Learn how your strengths help you succeed, and how to be adaptable in different settings.
- Intercultural and Interfaith Community Building Skills: A strong desire to see students of various worldviews grow in relationship and respect with one another.

Learning Outcomes

- Awareness: You will gain knowledge and understanding of a variety of faiths and cultures as well as learn how to contribute to a culture of peace in multicultural communities.
- Teamwork: You will learn teamwork as you work as a part of a growing and diverse team from a variety of religious, spiritual, and secular identities.
- Communication: You will have opportunities to speak on behalf of Faith and Life at various events, classrooms, and online outlets.
- Religious Equity and Advocacy: Be an advocate for religious equity and accessibility across campus.

Time Commitment

- Ambassadors are expected to commit no less than 3 hours per week, and no more than 5 hours per week.
- This can include anything from tours, attending or planning events, and using the Faith and Life Centre to connect with Brock students.
- Ambassadors must also commit to one meeting per month with the whole team.

Ambassador Openings

- Faith and Life is currently seeking religiously identifying leaders for the following identities:
 - Muslim
 - Catholic
 - Protestant
 - Orthodox
 - Jewish
 - Hindu
 - Buddhist
 - Sikh

Application

- Visit the following link and submit your application by August 20th, 2021 to be considered for one of our Ambassador positions.
- Link for Application: <https://forms.gle/hEFQZvrKMDUU7iP6>