

Welcome to the UNESCO World Poetry Day Celebration

Sustainability Poetry Contest
Food Sustainability

Reason for Celebration

- Canadian
- Commission
- for UNESCO
- Commission
- pour l'UNESCO
-

Food Sustainability

World Poetry Day

21 March

"Every poem is unique but each reflects the universal in human experience, the aspiration for creativity that crosses all boundaries and borders, of time as well as space, in the constant affirmation of humanity as a single family."

- Irina Bokova, Director-General of UNESCO

Congratulations!

La Ville-Jardin, faillite alimentaire

By: Casey Lawrence

Category: College/University Student (French)

Guest Reading

Hail

By: Adam Dickinson

Congratulations!

Gertrude Stein on Sustainability

By: Jonathan Lepp

Category: General Public

Gertrude Stein on Sustainability

Am

I

Thoroughly

Pleased

Enough is enough is enough is enough

Pleased

Thoroughly

I

Am

Guest Reading

Vienne, centre-ville

By: Catherine Parayre

Congratulations!

Exported Goods

By: Jamie Lupia

Category: College/University Student (English)

Guest Reading

Lenses and lentilles

By: Adam Dickinson & Catherine Parayre

Thank you to our Judges

Gregory Betts

Adam Dickinson

Neta Gordon

Nigel Lezama

Catherine Parayre

Thank you to our Sponsors

Bellferro Ironworks

Brock Library

FirstOntario Performing Arts Centre

Mahtay Café & Lounge

UNESCO Chair in Community Sustainability

Thank you for celebrating UNESCO
Poetry Day with us!

